ENDINGS AND NEW BEGINNINGS

This weekend marks the final round for 138 of our 242 teams while many of the others are battling to the wire in this intriguing season.

The highlights this weekend are our four Club XVIII grand finals. One is being played under lights on Friday night and the other three in an action-packed Sunday at Sportscover Arena. If you have never been to this day, I can highly recommend your attendance. There are not many places where you can see three senior grand finals on one day. The crowds are large, emotions run high and the stress is enormous. It can be that a single mistake means a premiership slips from grasp and it is interesting to see the composure of club XVIII players who usually play without spectator support (or non-support).

We are anticipating big crowds on Sunday with six different clubs represented – Old Xaverians (2) v Collegians, Marcellin v Old Brighton and Old Ivanhoe facing Old Essendon. On Friday, Ormond take on Old Melburnians.

The other Sections are playing their ultimate or penultimate rounds and as usual, there are many scenarios at both ends of the ladders. Next season, D3 will consist of 12 teams resulting in only one club being relegated and three promoted. The bottom of D3 has been incredible. One week, clubs have been staving off the dreaded drop only to find a victory places them with a shot for a finals berth. This battle has gone on for the entire second half of the season and we will have Elsternwick and St John's battling for the fourth spot and one of Monash Gryphons or Power House relegated.

D4 has been very competitive at the top end. The incentive of three being promoted and a final five has provided a real motivation in this section. La Trobe's loss at Kew has seen Albert Park go a game clear who head out to Mt Lilydale. Mt Lilydale must win to hold off South Mornington for fifth place. There is a great reward for the minor premiers, as they get the weeks rest and the opportunity to watch their fellow-combatants slug it out.

Incredibly all positions in C Section has been finalised with Caulfield, MHSOB, Beaumaris and Oakleigh

Marching onto the finals whilst Monash Blues and Bulleen Templestowe go down to D1. That section has the final four settled but it is in the bottom end that holds the interest. Ninth placed Aquinas is at home to Emmaus, which is certain to be relegated. They are in battle with South Melbourne, which hosts a Prahran that have lost by a combined total of 216 points in the last two weeks since confirming their place in the section.

In D2, Ivanhoe and Yarra Valley have been relegated whilst Williamstown and Banyule battle it out for the chance to play Peninsula for promotion.

The Under 18 competition has been a great innovation for the Association. We have been able to secure a representative match for our U18 players in New Zealand during October. NZ is hosting their regional championships over a long weekend and we were invited to play against their National Under 20 team. This is a self-funded tour and a marvellous opportunity for these young players.

Oakleigh and newcomers Preston Bullants have been the stand out teams with St Bernard's certain finalists in our inaugural U18 comp. UHS-VU combined with Flemington JFC to formulate a hybrid team that features many African lads. The true spirit of Vafa football has been extended to these new teams, who have enjoyed the positive experiences of under age football in the Vafa. It is anticipated that up to eight new teams may enter this competition in 2010.

All five under 19 sections conclude on the weekend. Old Camberwell (North 1), along with Old Melburnians Reserves are the only undefeated team remaining out of the 242. The other minor premiers will be De La Salle (Premier), Old Melburnians (South 1), Old Geelong Blacks (North 2) and either Ajax or Hampton Rovers in South 2. Of course, the minor premiership counts for little. That's why we play finals and we look forward to many absorbing contests over the next month.

THE JOURNAL OF THE VICTORIAN AMATEUR FOOTBALL ASSOCIATION

August 22nd, 2009 Price: $2.00 Vol. 09 No. 18

All things must pass, as George Harrison once reminded us, and last week in R16, two significant streaks came to an end. At the top of the table, St Bede's Mentone Tigers smothered and choked the life from Old Xaverians in the wind at Brindisi Street, while at Chelsworth Park, the strains of the nearly-forgotten club song shook the walls after their long-awaited second victory of the year.

The flag was never vertical at Mentone as the premiership aspirants battled it out. The home team had first use, but the Xaverians played some of their finest football for the year into the breeze to keep it close at quarter time. Their second term was as poor as their first was good, as the Tigers clogged it up and applied the physical pressure. For some strange reason, the Red and Blacks attacked relentlessly to the social club side, from which scoring was nigh on impossible, and squandered their grand start. The third quarter saw the Tigers kick away before Xavs hit back late to wrest the momentum, though a Peter McGettigan goal after the bell set the line to 20 with a quarter to play. Xavs got to within two goals midway through the final term, but missed four clear shots to end their chances of stealing the win. Bede's kicked three in time-on to add the cheery to the whipped cream. The home team was best served by skipper James "Taxis" Tyquin, Brett Collins and assorted Wintles, while Josh Agius and Jon Mercuri were the visitors' most effective. It was a confidence builder for the Combine, though whether yesterday's ascendancy translates to Sportscover Arena won't be known for a few weeks yet.

The Browns finally got there, winning by nine points over Old Scotch to end their horrific skein. Ricky Jessop was again in fine form in a low scoring encounter. The Cardinals went in without many of their established stars and couldn't kick a winning score, despite winning three of the four terms. Old Ivanhoe's second term in which they kicked 6.5 did the trick. Charlie Tallent was again best in Red and must be a runaway leader in their B+F. After being written off as certainties for the drop, the Hoes can now still possibly survive, though the odds are stacked against them.

Old Essendon got away to a flying start against Uni Blues out at East Keilor, kicking five goals in the first stanza. Unhappily for them, they added just one more before the final siren, while Blues pegged their way back and applied the full body slam with 10.8 to 0.0 in the last quarter procession. Sam Chadwick was again in top touch for the blues, who welcomed back Big V rep Mark McLeod, but the old stager Mark Paterson got the votes. For the Bombers, Nick Bartram got the nod, while Dan Cooper, usually their best defender, was their only multiple goalkicker.

Old Brighton went to the Trott seeking to continue the rampage it had begun the previous week, but they found Collegians, who retain hopes of a September commitment, just a little too good. Well, that's an understatement – the Purples smashed them, with the Tonners unable to stop Fergus Watts or even match his scoring. Brett Sinclair was the solitary sharpshooter for the visitors, with one in the first and three in the third, but the goal umpires at the Brighton end in the second and the fourth didn't have to move a muscle except when waving the calicos to signal another Lion's score. Mike Dyer and Andrew Baxter were rampant and Shura Taft was in the goals again for the victors, while Josh Dickerson and David Spriggs were the best performed for the again disappointing surf-side outfit.

Leigh Harrison made his long-awaited return for De La against Marcellin, and the Blue and Golds went in without Bens Corin and Mannix. The four goal lead they established early held all afternoon despite the Eagles' strong efforts to haul it back. Michael Duggan also returned for De La after being a late withdrawal the previous week and he and fellow lefty Matt Fieldsend were livewires, as was best afield Jake Gotch. Dan Cullinan kicked three for the Eagles, while Mark Bortolotto was again very impressive.

OUTLOOK

Only a miracle will prevent Xavs playing in the second-semi and their opponent should be decided next week when SBMT meets DLS.

TODAY'S A SECTION MATCHES
MARCELLIN	v COLLEGIANS
OLD XAVERIANS	v OLD ESSENDON
SBM TIGERS	v OLD SCOTCH
OLD BRIGHTON	v DE LA SALLE
UNI BLUES	v OLD IVANHOE

Uni Blues continue to hold Collegians at bay on percentage and are still favourites for fourth spot.

Old Ivanhoe must win both remaining games and Marcellin lose both to stay up.

THIS WEEK

Collegians @ Marcellin: It's tough to go past the recent form of the Lions, who have hit top speed, but it could be a case of "Here comes Tails at a hundred miles an hour: won't run a place". Fans of both clubs will likely keep a close watch on the happenings at the Varsity.

Old Essendon @ Old Xaverians: If the Xavs are sore at losing last week, they won't hesitate to let Old Essendon know about it. The skinny on the Northerners is that they struggle to play four quarters and if that holds true, it might get ugly.

Old Scotch @ SBMT: All Tigers will remember how Scotch beat them at home on Anzac Friday last year and this should provide sufficient motive to go for a big kill. The Cardinals are giving their young ones a good taste of senior footy, but cannot win without their full list.

De La Salle @ Old Brighton: Are things looking a bit shaky for the Blue and Golds or has their recent form been part of the regular season ebb and flow? Will it matter at the Beach? Will Brighton regroup and atone for the drubbing at Waverly Park earlier in the year or will De La again find the momentum to kick a big score. It may be the game of the round, but then again, it may not be. De La to win, with only the margin an issue.

Old Ivanhoe @ Uni Blues: The white-picketed Uni Oval may be the ground that best suits the Browns outside of their own Chelsworth Park. Are Old Ivanhoe strong enough to pull off a massive win here? Not this week, methinks. Blues are too good and will slowly strangle the Browns' eleventh-hour hopes.

B SECTION

by William McCann

There is a saying in the old country that goes “If you’re not confused, you don’t know what is going on”. Well, B grade is a little like that at the moment, but it sure ain’t boring. We started Round 16 with four in the relegation scrap and 6 premiership contenders...and that’s pretty much the way it finished too, although the Bloods are hanging onto their finals chances by the skin of their teeth.

I’ll start my report out at McKinnon Reserve. In a game that each side would have been desperate to win, it was a wire-to-wire win for the Redlegs, leaving the premiership favourites one win from cementing their double chance. 2009 has bumper year from the boys from Domain Rd, with their Reserves already certain of top spot and in line for an unbeaten season, while just to sweeten the deal their U19s are also top of the tree. For the Bloods, the picture is not as pretty, however they could still be an A grade side in 2010 if results fall their way.

It’s hard to know what to make of the result out at the Uni. Some massive ins for the Blacks included the brothers Kempton, 1997 Number 4 national draft pick Mark Bolton and the impressive Savage. Through their all star midfield, Uni controlled the game from start to finish. Starting well and just going on with it, the Blackers simply had a day out. Uni’s coach will be well pleased with the pressure exerted on the young Snow Dogs outfit.

Best in an outstanding team effort was Scott Hissey. Strongly rumoured to be first picked in an effort from the Uni Blacks hierarchy to increase female traffic through the ivory clad gates on game day, the onballer has proven to be a valuable addition in 2009.

The losers will find solace in the fact the double chance is still theirs for the taking. Although I’m sure the debut coach will be challenging his troops to take a leaf out of Alex Jolley’s book and maximise their time in the gym.

The result sets up Blacks for the game of their lives against their old foe Trinity. These two sides have been locked together for the best part of two years now and will fight another epic battle potentially deciding the last finals spot up for grabs.

Speaking of Old Trinity, they were in vintage form out at Bulleen. Rambo and Cultrera both kicked bags and even without Iezzi they were dominant in the middle due to the endeavours of young Jessop and “Jack” Osborn.

Trinity kicked with a strong breeze and by quarter time were 53 points up on Ormond and the game was over. The lead was stretched to over 100 points by three quarter time, and the end margin was 95.

Matt Martinov was the only clear winner for the Ormond side that has now lost 7 on the bounce; at one stage during the third term, he had kicked the entire Ormond score, finally finished with five goals in a dominant display.

Out at Boss James, the Hampton Rovers defeated Old Camberwell by 21 points to jump three positions on the ladder to seventh and take a big step forward in the fight to survive relegation.

Again, windy conditions, favouring the David Street end of the ground, to which the Hampton Rovers kicked towards in the opening term. It started a scrappy affair and the home side could only manage two goals. However, the Wellers failed to score at all.

Hampton Rovers were far from dominant with the wind in the first quarter and it was always going to be interesting to see what transpired in the second term. Importantly Rovers managed two goals against it while Camberwell managed the same with it, from their eight scoring shots. At half time, it was Hampton Rovers leading by 12 points.

The game opened up somewhat in the third term with the Rovers kicking five goals while the visitors could only manage a single point. At the final change, it was the Rovers holding a comfortable 43 point lead. The game was far from over though – last time the two teams met, Old Camberwell booted 10 goals with the wind in the last to come within 5 points of the Rovers, the conditions were very similar at the Boss on Saturday.

The Wellers kicked the opening goal of the final quarter and slowly began pegging back at the Rovers score. Throughout the final term, the visitors wasted plenty of opportunities, with four behinds, and more shots at goal going out on the full. With minutes remaining, Old Camberwell had reduced the margin to a few kicks and the atmosphere was tense.

However that tension somewhat eased shortly after with a lucky bounce handing Rovers a goal to stretch the lead to 27 points. An OC goal on the final siren reduced the winning margin for the Rovers to 21 points.

Ryan Semmel and Rob Alexander each kicked three goals for the Rovers while Tom Curry kicked two. Captain Matt Lawrence and Vice Captain Gary Carr were amongst the Rovers best.

With other results falling their way, Rovers have bounced back to seventh, a healthy bit of percentage above the drop. One can only think that the final round game against the old rivals Ormond will be what it all comes down to.

The final game of the round was played at the wind-swept Carey Sports Complex. Riding on a high for the previous week’s death defying win OC took the game to SKOB in the early minutes of the game. Unfortunately the home side could not put it on the scoreboard and St Kev’s simply took control of the game from that point. Out by 6 at quarter time the game never really threaten to become a contest there after.

Carey’s best spell came in the 3rd quarter win drawing to within 5 goals before a piece of typical Ben Dowd pace and skill broke the home side’s momentum.

Pleasing for the victors would have been the tenacious display from the Sullivans. The first senior game of the year for Eric Chesseman Mazzarella would have also been given coach Powell something to smile about. The big cheese plugged gaps all over the ground but was able to gain enough leverage so the hips did not lie.

For the vanquished, Alan Stewart-Holmes continued his impressive season while Howat and Kent gave everything to try and pull Carey into the game.

PREVIEWS

My tips proved to be wide of the mark last week but have been on the phone all week to my spies and a have a few upsets that may right the ship.

At GB I’ll go for an upset and tip the Wellers. Camberwell seemed to be the sort of animal that won’t bite unless backed into a corner....well they are now in that metaphorical corner and with plenty of talent to make it happen they will come out snarling. Rumours have floated through of OC making this their game of their year and will come out with a do or die attitude. Contrast that with a SKOB team that is now safely in the finals and you see my logic.

The Snowdogs will have coped a grilling this week and will respond by ending the Bloods season. I have struggled to get a gauge on either team this season but I expect the old timers Ben Jordan and Dutchy Holland to lead a strong West Essendon resurgence.

In the MOTD toss a coin. The Blacks are almost at full strength while Trinity love playing at the Marles. I’ll go for the home side for no convincing reason. This will be a beauty, if you wander down look for the M. Kempton vs. Iezzi & Bolton vs. Ramsden clashes.

Ormond take on Carey in potential decider. Impossible to tip Ormond in the form they are in but every loss takes them closer to the next win. I don’t fancy it will be this week. Carey to keep their B section hopes alive.

The Redlegs will simply have too much for Hampton Rovers. The Rover’s will be keen to keep the game nice and close as they would realise that percentage is all important while an OM win makes certain a top two finish.

RISING STAR MICHAEL DYER – COLLEGIANS

This week's Rising Star is Michael Dyer of Collegians, who was best afield in their win over Old Brighton last Saturday.

Dyer is a will-o'-the-wisp nineteen year old who is playing his first full season with the Lions after dipping his toes in the water while still at Wesley College.

Plagued by broken arms and hands while at school, Mike went through his first real pre-season this year and was aided in his development by Fergus Watts. Despite his small stature, he is an excellent tackler and can play roles in attack or defence.

Given that his father is the club President, his uncle David Hoyle played in three A Section flags with the Lions, and that Mike himself has helped out at the club since his early teens, there was little doubt that he would head to the Trott for his post-school football.

Well done young Mr Dyer.

AROUND THE GROUNDS

All the interest lay within the boundaries of postcode 3141. Only 600 metres apart, the finals would effectively be locked in if Oakleigh could defeat Old Geelong at Como Park and Mazenod failed to triumph at Melbourne High School. Unfortunately for the bagmen and the Noddors, both scenarios eventuated, Oakleigh sealing the last available spot in the Top 4 with a royal shellacking of the Como Boys.

Limping off a 100 plus point demolition by Caulfield, Old Geelong showed some early resilience to test the Krushers, only five points adrift at quarter time. There after however, things went awry with Oakleigh going into overdrive, booting twenty goals to three as they served the league an ominous warning. Trevor Bromely was simply brilliant, his nine goals complimented by full-back Lee Barrand, who travelled into the forward arc in the last quarter to kick three of his own goals as the boys from Scammell walked in by 111 points.

Down the road, Mazenod finals flame was all but distinguished as the Unicorns peppered the goals early on, having an incredible 22 scoring shots in the first quarter but only registering 6.16 with little Luke Campbell slotting through three majors. With the breeze, Mazenod responded but never looked within site of a win as goals in the third term to Rhys Limbrick and Jimmy Tran steadied the Unicorn ship. Into the last quarter, Andrew Villani was thrust forward and belying his defensive mindset, he kicked just the second goal (a crisp snap) of his career to send the Noddors packing from season 2009. The Chamberlain brothers were among the best for Mazenod, a team that has been cruelled by injuries at key moments throughout the year.

Sorry Grandma Match of the Round watchers were in shock at the Racecourse, Beaumaris silencing the home side to lead 40 points to zip at quarter time with Cathcart and Duggan dominating play. Showing why they are the premier team in the competition, Caulfield rallied to close the margin to under two kicks at the main break with the Sundberg brothers starting to rack up the possessions. Kicking five goals to one into the wind, the Fields snuffed any hope of a Shark upset as they controlled the match to run out 25 point winners. Andrew Slevison was kept to just the two goals, rising his season return to 88, a dozen shy from the ton.

Over at Monash University, Bulleen-Templestowe channelled some Dale Kerrigan logic that football is 10% brains and 95% muscle, the rest is just good luck. With both teams heading to D1 in 2010, the honour of avoiding the wooden spoon was on the line, three quarter time seeing the home side ahead by eight points. Unveiling the Cherbakof & Burridge show, the Bullant forwards put on a show for their travelling cheersquad as they kicked seven unanswered goals to make it back to back wins, clearing away to score by six goals. Nicholas Hicks was best for the Sky Blues in a lone hand up forward, his bag of six kicked early showcasing his immense talent.

Finally, Parkdale compounded further misery on a lifeless Ajax with a low scoring victory at Garry Smorgon Oval. Boasting the double threat of Rochford and Boland up forward, the Vultures had the class edge on the home side and kicked straighter to notch win number five for 2009. Daniel Freed tried in vain for the Jackers, winning the player of the day award from the Ajax coaching staff.

ROUND 18 PREVIEW

Oakleigh ($2.05) v MHSOB ($1.80)

Redemption time for Oakleigh after their winning streak was quelled by the Unicorns earlier in the year in a South Yarra shootout. Expect fireworks in the middle, the big bodies of Jon Rutter and Matt White bound to inflict some nightmares. At home and with Bromely in supreme form, Oakleigh can sneak in by a goal.

Mazenod ($1.33) v Ajax ($3.00)

Only a month ago, this match looked set to be one of the year's highlights with the winner taking the last spot in the Top 4. Fast forward the clock, the game now only boasts interest to players pushing for best and fairest votes. The Noddors should brush aside the depleted Jackas who are done and dusted for 2009. Mazenod by plenty.

Bulleen-Templestowe ($7.00) v Caulfield Grammarians ($1.08)

The entire Slevison family tree will venture to Ted Ajani to see if Andrew can reach his ton against the relegated Bullants. A dozen away from 100, Slevison will look to replicate the deeds of Jason Dunstall in 1996. Under the lights of the MCG, he kicked ten to bring up his century against the Demons in a last round match shrouded in merger talk. Caulfield by ten goals.

Beaumaris ($1.06) v Monash Blues ($9.00)

In a last goodbye to C Section, the Sky Blues venture across to the sand belt with the Beaumaris home ground looking much like a public golf course fairway in summer, brown and dry. It's an opportune time for Shark full-forward Scott Gower to find some touch before finals next week. Beaumaris by plenty.

Parkdale Vultures ($1.33) v Old Geelong ($3.00)

The Ozmosis Vultures versus the Ralph Lauren Como Boys, both of these teams have been lucky to stay in C Section this year after registering only five wins each. Old Geelong has been pummeled the last fortnight, harking back to days at Western Oval watching Fitzroy on the terrace. Parkdale by five goals.

LOOKING AHEAD NEXT WEEK

2nd Semi Final – Caulfield Grammarians v MHSOB – Saturday 29 August @ Junction Oval

FOR THE LOVE OF THE GAME...

Bentleigh's Paul Hutchison is only the fifth player in that club's history to reach 300 games. Hutchie had a brief retirement in 2006-07 where he coached the U19s but his love of playing the game saw him return to win the Reserves Best & Fairest in 2008. This after around 230 games in the seniors. The Hutchison family are tireless contributors to the club's success and with seniors and reserves riding high, a successful September might well see more awards in the Hutchison trophy cabinet.

VFA board member and broadcast veteran Tom Brain dashed through Customs last Sunday morning to get to the radio studios in Mentone in time for his Sunday morning stint on 88.3FM. Tommy had missed two weekends while relaxing in Fiji, but followed all the VFA action on Twitter and through the live scores on vafa.com.au and as such, was full bottle on all recent events. "I tipped this" he told fellow host Steve McCarthy with some enthusiasm about SBMT's win over Xavs, though his on-air partner seemed more interested in Tom's selections from the resort wine list.

It was a great day out for Old Trinity last Saturday, with both reserves and seniors notching impressive wins. Not only that, but the club also celebrated Mick Elliott's 300th game of VFA football. Mick only joined Old Trinity in 2007 because his fiancée was related to the OT hierarchy and since has notched up 31 senior and reserve games for the club. Mick however will best be remembered for his stellar 269 game career at Therry Penola, which commenced in 1992 and included several years in A Section. Mick fondly remembers one of his first games against OT when he was up against the ageless Rambo. Throughout his career, he played mainly as a ruck-rover and always had a keen eye for the goals (he managed three last Saturday). Although Therry has slipped through the grades in recent years, Mick was always a standout performer and was a C-D State representative in 2000.

The excitement is building with the Annual Umpires' dinner to be held next Monday night at the MCG. The men in white have done a great job thus far, though injuries and unavailability have caused nightmares for Benny Goodman, who organises the weekly rosters. Up for grabs is the much coveted Umpire of the Year Award and the AFL Victoria Golden Whistle, which is not an Acme Thunderer and not gold, but a magnificently inscribed trophy.

Christopher Sullivan is one of six brothers to represent Parkdale Vultures and this week becomes the third to hit 200 games. Debuting in 1996, Chris won the senior Best & Fairest in 1999 and 2000, and was a premierships player in 2001. More broadcast news: As well as following VFA action via 3G mobile phones on Twitter, iPhone users can also pick up the InnerFM broadcast of the Match of the Day via the Shoutcast application. It might chew up some of your data allowance, but the dulcet tones of Ken Petrucco come through loud and clear, as good as the quality through innerfm.org.au

Dean Tulloch runs out for his 300th for Bulleen Templestowe this week. Dean is the original "Pocket Rocket" and has roved, rocked and rolled his way into all Bullants' hearts. He has been a dual best and fairest winner, played in their most recent Premiership in 2008 and endeared himself to millions the world over. He featured in the BT Team of the Century.

Only five of our seventy-three clubs have sent in the requisite $100 for Cystic Fibrosis that will see them entered in the draw for $1000 worth of training jumpers. Club Treasurers, time to pull out the cheque books and give to the VFA's official charity. Contact Jeremy Bourke for further details on 9537 6777.

Jim Podesta of Watts Fencing in Oakleigh, and Krushers committeeman has come to the aid of the fence around Sportscover Arena this week. He's patched a few holes here and there, which appeared when football fans (from non-VFA clubs of course) attempted to get around paying finals' entry fees. Memo to them: You will be caught, you will be punished. Plans are afoot to install stocks in front of the Alex Johnson Pavilion on Grand final Day to showcase any vandalous cheapskates. Caterer Neil Weatherston expects to do a roaring trade in shaving cream pies!

Emmaus St Leos' Tim "Wiff" McCann plays his 200th game this week. Tim first played in 1997 when he joined the McCann dynasty at the club with his four brothers and is now the club's inspirational senior captain. An important member of their 2002 premierships team and senior B+F in 2003 and runner up in 2005, Tim has fought back from a career ending injury last year and continues to be an important and versatile member of the Animals. Some would say he does his best work organising and financing the end of season trips, but Tim would say fathering his first son Josh, born last week was his best.

Prahran's Will Walford reached 100 senior VFA games with the Two Blues recently. He joined their U19s in 1987 when they played in the VFA, and was wearing the Two Blues' jumper before several of his current teammates were born. By year's end, he was a Senior Premiership player as the club defeated Waverley to take the Second Division flag. Will amassed 91 senior games in the VFA, before joining Southbank via a season with MHSOB. When Southbank and Prahran merged to form Prahran AFC, Will came home! A great clubman over many years, Will continues his role on the committee as well as a mentor and role model to younger players at the club. Well done Equity.

Power House's Mark Driessen finally hits his 100 this week. Hailing from Tasmania, "Storma" has made a home for himself in the seniors as a high leaping, strong running wingman over many injury interrupted years at the club. Power House is hoping that Driessen's next 100 come around a little more quickly.

The countdown clock at Sportscover Arena, for now at least, will be seen no more. Timekeepers in Club XVIII have been instructed that quarters will no longer be a straight 25 minutes, but 17 plus time on. A few too many were getting wise to time wasting tactics, it seems.

Ryan "Nugget" Daley plays his 100th game for the Manningham Cobras this week. Nugget has played many positions and has taken more punishment to the head than a second-rate career boxer. His ability to take the freakish grabs has seen him kick many bags and steer his club to victory on many occasions.

FTLOTG congratulates Brad Scott on his new appointment as coach of North Melbourne. Scott, who has been seen at enough VFA games that we can tell him apart from twin brother Chris, is a good St Kevin's boy and the SKOBs are no doubt hoping that their man might send a few players their way. They might have some competition there, as a former roommate of his has ties to another VFA club.

Attention all clubs: Please nominate your players for the Team of the Year by emailing your Section scribe.

Here we are at the business end and the usual phenomenon is taking place. I know that's a bit of an oxymoron, 'usual phenomenon' but the same strange, mystifying thing happens every season. Like clockwork. The Mighty reveal an Achilles heel, and the Meek find a bit of ginger. Something has stirred deep within South Melbourne Districts - who looked destined for relegation - and while they may still leave us, they're having a red hot crack.

Here they are, the D1 Transformers. More than meets the eye. It's as if a sleeping Decepticon has risen from its slumber to deliver a challenge to the usual band of Autobots. A do or die struggle to stay here on D1 earth. Is Werribee the cute and inoffensive Bumblebee? I don't think so, more like the slashing Ultra Magnus, just ask the Panthers last Saturday, who could be considered the Cliffjumpers given some wasted opportunities this season. The muscular Friar outfit are the Omega Supreme of the pack; the slick Roys the Jazz Autobot and NOBSP the hard rock Blasters. Prahran's Perceptor over-thinks its game; Aquinas is the space-cadet Cosmos while the peace-loving (and oh-so-appropriately-named) Eject would have to be Emmaus at the drop. The leader of the pack is of course minor premiership winner and thunderous Sunbury semi-trailer, Optimus Prime. But will Rupo hold the supremacy over these crazy robotniks who from week to week morph between a DeLorean and a Datsun 120Y?

ROUND SEVENTEEN REVIEW

Highlight for the Animals at Bennetswood was the ladies lunch, SMD spoiling the party as they powered to a 14 goal lead at half time. The game was over and so was the Animals' chance of remaining in D1, but they fought the game out, matching SMD in the second half with Rose Hickey, Dick Hodder (3) and Foxy Beluszar (2) giving their best. South pulled off a 97 point victory, spotted driving home with that crazy wind in their hair were Batchelor (2), Kohnesheen and Cheevers (6), who seem to have engaged their late-season flux capacitor.

Michael Barker and Josh Minenko bagged 6 each for NOBSP at home to Aquinas, shoring up their 40 point win and fifth pozzie nicely. As the world swirled around Gillon oval, O'Connor and Keown were outstanding for the Cobbers who shrugged off a first quarter malaise and nailed 8 second term goals to the Bloods' solitary salute. Valiant efforts from Niezen (2), Michael Jess

(2) and Cardamone (4). The two Bloods have now transposed positions on the ladder, Aquinas in 9th and looking anaemic.

Prahran looked in need of a transfusion - maybe even total amputation - after its abysmal effort against Fitzroy at Trak Park. At quarter time the Two Blues were a single behind and trailed by 55 points, Fitzroy captain Jimmy O'Reilly scoring a monster from the edge of the goal square on the siren. At the huddle Roys coach Simon Taylor implored his boys to 'crunch up' in the second, and the home team barely saw the ball in their forward fifty, bar a single major. Halftime margin 64 points, it was more entertaining watching Jimmy Hird's tacklers run around while the dads hovered dimmies. Fitzroy continued to outplay Prahran in the second half, the final margin 86 points and Simon Kelleher taking best on ground honours, closely followed by McKay and Topp. For the home side Stewart, Sleight and Falcone were the few with their minds on the job, and as a consequence the Blues are no cert to stay in D1 - today's results and margins are crucial between seventh and tenth.

In a sometimes fiery clash, Old Mentonians travelled to Soldiers Reserve and despite first use of the significant breeze, allowed the Tigers the first two goals and a 3 point lead at quarter time. Frustrations boiled over. The wind rattled through every living thing over the Pleurisy Plains, and turnovers proved costly as Werribee kicked to a 28 point lead at the main. OMs used the eddy in the third and closed the gap to just two points but soon ran out of legs in the last as the super-fit Tiger machine finished strongly, 45 point victors. Best for Werribee were Palmington and Fastuca (4); Cunningham adding four also, while Panthers Norton, Prowse (3) and Graham (3) played well.

Game of the round was Rupertswood v Whitefriars, a tight, tough contest at Sunbury between two very committed outfits and a classic one-point thriller decided on the last kick of the day. Every possession was hard-earned, Rupo had the best of it early and when the ball got into space used their skilled ball handlers Pretty (2), Plummer & Phillips (3). Bishop was easily the best for Rupo with his inside work that really set up the game for them. Neck and neck with 10 seconds to go, a well directed Rupo worm-burner snuck through for the winning point. Best for the Friars were skipper Brosolo at half forward, Cunningham in the ruck and Adgemis (2) on the wing. All in all a great tussle played in great spirit.

ROUND EIGHTEEN PREVIEW

Flukey fixturing this final round; the bottom four play each other, the top four play each other, and the middle two tussle it out. What a script! Maths is not my strong suit, but I'm tipping Prahran and South will manage to stay in D1, bye-bye ESL and Aquinas. NOBSP will finish on a high, giving the Panthers something to think about over Summer, and the top four will stay as is: Rupo in a close one over Fitzroy at BSO, Friars at home in a similarly close one over the Tigers, but not enough to dislodge them from second.

Please email through your nominations for the D1 Team of 2009. Player names and positions please. If I don't receive enough, it may just be Di's Calendar.

Ahead of next week's semi finals, can I say a big thanks to club contributors throughout the year: Tod, Paul, Bill, Nick, Greg, Warren, Craig and Peter. Top blokes.

Please email your match summaries to dilangton@bigpond.com by Sunday evening.

UMPIRES CORNER

by Steve McCarthy & Leah Gallagher

Round 18

For some clubs in C section down this will be do or die for either finals spots or to avoid relegation. In some cases you players and coaches might not recognise the umpires, don't be afraid it's just some of the higher grade umpires. Introduce yourself, tell them they are doing a job (they like that) and get to know their style if you are playing in finals. Good luck today. For those teams that are not in either position enjoy Mad Monday!!!

A fond farewell to some of those legends who are quite likely to hang up the boots tonight. To a couple of them who we won't name (one from Bulleen/Templestowe and one from Parkdale Vultures), you have been fantastic servants of the VAF A over many years. Put your feet up boys, and think of the money your clubs will save on ice.

Mute – at last!

A couple of weeks back, veteran field umpire Wayne (Chuck) Hinton found himself in a spot of bother at the start of the game. Standing in the centre of Sportscover Arena he raised the ball to the timekeepers and then blew his whistle, or did he? Not a single sound, not a peep, nothing, nada. After about four more attempts with still no joy, the contesting ruckmen, all other players, the crowd and of course his partner were getting a little impatient as the timeclock was heading toward the one minute mark. He finally decided to pull out the spare whistle (that's why we carry one) and get the game underway. At quarter time a supporter walked past Chuck and said, "What happened, after that massive warm-up did you run out of breath or is it just that age is catching up with you?"

Hurry up

Some umpires can be ready to go 15 min or 10 min before starting, but then there is Gibbo who will just take his time. Well Gibbo, Andrew Walters can give you a run for your money. Andrew when your team is ready with 10 min to go that means you should be also not getting a rub from a trainer then spending another 5 min putting on the skins then shorts, plan better young man. We have a new champion Gibbo!

In the Pink for a Centurion

A few weeks ago we saw three young female umpires decked out in pink shirts for the Community Cup. Certainly no colour clash with the players there. Seemed a little ironic that the organiser of the Community Cup, our own Jason (Evo) Evans was struck down with a serious washing mishap last week.

It appears that when grabbed his umpiring gear out of the washing basket on Saturday morning he'd found that his flatmate (of course blame someone else) had obviously thrown a few red things into the wash with the umpiring gear. Result – you guessed it, nice pink tinge on the shirts. Personally we would have liked to have seen him umpire like that, but luckily for him he was assisted with a spare white shirt from one of his colleagues running on the ground next door. If it hadn't been one of the writers of this column this little incident probably would have slipped straight through to the keeper. Be careful with your cricket whites over the summer Evo! And a big congratulations to Evo who runs around in his 100th VAF A game as an umpire today. A former Powerhouse legend (allegedly) he is yet another success story of a player taking up the whistle.

Benny's Rule of the Week

OFFICIAL WITHIN THE FORTY – FIVE ARC

A free kick is to be awarded against a club if its runner or any other on field official is positioned within the 45 metre area when the full back is kicking in after a Behind has been scored. In this event the Free Kick is to be taken by a player of the opposition team directly in front of goals on the 45 metre arc in that half of the ground and the kick to be taken by the nearest player to this point.

An umpire may show discretion only in the event of a club trainer being in the area to attend a player who is genuinely distressed or injured.

An official who runs from the actual playing area before the full back kicks the ball in is to be deemed "safe".

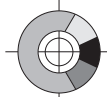

Get well soon

All at the VAF AUA send their regards and best wishes to Peter Love of Old Ivanhoe who is dealing with some health issues at the moment.

Night of Nights

It's here this Monday night, finally we can let our hair down and enjoy the successful year. For clubs who are interested, this is like your Best and Fairest night where we announce of all our award winners, pay tribute to Life Members and focus for the finals. Do we drink? Responsibly - Yes! But the late night will turn into early morning and this is where the experienced umpires rise to the occasion. Finally, to our running coach Rob Sneddon - just take a good look to who turns up to training the next day, these are your die-hards who are just running the fumes off.

RESPECT THE UMPIRE – RESPECT THE GAME!!

D2 SECTION

by Caillin O'Shannessy

After seventeen grueling weeks of football only one round remains before the finals series decides the season's ultimate winner. The top four have booked their spot for September action, whilst the bottom two have anchored themselves to the relegation positions. Despite this round eighteen's games still hold much interest for punters, who will be looking to find the form teams going into finals, and those that can't match it with quality opposition.

This week Banyule play Therry Penola, and after suffering a demoralizing defeat at the hands of Peninsula last weekend, Banyule will be looking to regain some confidence against another top four side. Banyule were only able to stay with the ladder leaders for the first half last week, until Peninsula turned it on and upset Banyule's hopes for a double chance. A loss this week would see Banyule drop again to fourth position, whilst a victory could see them snatch second spot.

Therry Penola will not be an easy task for Banyule, as they come off a very comfortable win against Ivanhoe which all but secures their position in the top four. The game started slowly last week with both teams taking their time adjusting to the conditions, but then Therry opened up a lead and Ivanhoe were simply unable to stay with them. Corey Bannister moves ever closer to the celebrated hundred goals mark, while Mathew Reynolds and Michael Costello across the backline were very good also.

Williamstown CYMS have snatched second position and the double chance with just one week remaining in the regular season. After a huge victory over Yarra Valley the CY's leapt over Banyule and simply have to win next week to hold their position. Williamstown had the game sewn up after outscoring Yarra Valley into a strong breeze in the first quarter, and then punishing the bottom side in the second by kicking ten goals to one. Yarra Valley regrouped somewhat after the break and were able to win their share of the ball during the third term but were wasteful up forward kicking only one goal from seven scoring shots. The revival was short-lived as Williamstown seized complete control during the last term to kick twelve unanswered goals to register their biggest winning margin of the year. In the midfield Julian Hatfield continued his recent good form with a polished game in the centre. He had a capable ally in rover Matthew Lishman who showed plenty of zip in and around the packs. Yarra Valley still have something to play for against Glen Eira this week, as they will strive to avoid the wooden spoon.

Glen Eira produced a spirited effort against a classier Westbourne outfit with more to play for. The victory kept Old Westbourne's season alive mathematically, however it would take an unbelievable game against Williamstown this week to see them gain enough percentage to take over Therry Penola. Westbourne's best were Paul O'Keefe and Paul Hudson with three goals, whilst Alex Tsirogiannis, Said Elmi and Bongo Vamvakas in his 150th game were good for Glen Eira. A good opportunity this weekend for the Saints to finish their season on a high.

Eltham's second half of the season has not quite lived up to the promise of a team with so much potential. The Paradians were too good for them at Eltham College on the weekend, and although they sit next to each other on the ladder, there seems to be a large gap between these two sides. However they are both sides that are improving, and the signs have been there throughout the season that both these teams are capable of much improvement. Old Paradians can test themselves against the best this weekend, and Eltham have the opportunity to finish their season with a win against Old Ivanhoe.

WE USE Sherrin . . . Retrospective

by Geoff Reilly

5 YEARS AGO – 2004

In A Section, Old Trinity (fourth) faced up to ladder leaders, University Blues. A win to Trinity would be very welcome as Old Scotch (fifth) were sure to defeat lowly placed Whitefriars and if so, would continue to snap at Trinity's heel. A win to Trinity would in fact secure their first ever, A Section finals' participation. The Blues started slowly and at quarter time trailed Trinity by 3 goals. The Blues leveled at half time but Trinity kicked clear again in the third quarter. In a great last term Trinity held the lead until the talented George De Crespigny slotted one, 45 meters out on a tight angle and Trinity would now have to win the following week at De La Salle. Final scores – The Blues 11.14 to Old Trinity 10.13. Best players – Nailon, Lowcock (3), J K Brook, De Crespigny (3), North, Young (Uni Blues) and Williams, Neville, G Deane-Johns, T Van Der Venne, Cultrera (3), Buttler (Old Trinity).

A thrilling contest took place at Brindisi Street where St Bedes Mentone Tigers (third) hosted Old Essendon Grammarians (fifth) in a match that would in all probability decide the final four. Old Essendon were outstanding early and peppered the goals but only scored 3.5 to 0.2 at quarter time. St Bedes only just outscored the Essendonians in the second term and trailed by 3 goals at half time. The difference remained three goals at the final break after a tough, tight 30 minutes of footy and in the final term, every player threw everything they had at the contest before St Bedes got to the front and hung on by the narrowest of margins 11.14 to 10.19. It would now take almost a miracle for Essendon to make it with 1 round to play. Best players – Zakic, M Wintle, Bristow, P Wintle, Groves, Kane (St Bedes) and Wicks, Biggs, Foster, Oxnam, Fleming, Flaherty (Old Essendon).

De La Salle's "Captain Courageous", Robbie Bonnici, played his 150th game comprising 138 senior and 12 Under 19 matches. Robbie had been a consistent high achiever in VAFA awards being 3rd in A Section in 1998, winner in B Section in 2000 and 4th in B Section in 2003. He represented the VAFA at U19 level in both 1998 and 1999 in addition to numerous awards for his Club including Club Champion in 2004 and Club Captain. (Robbie is still contributing strongly to De La in 2009 as an Assistant Coach and Fitness Advisor – GR)

One of Old Ivanhoe's most colorful players, George Haros, reached his 200th game. A member of the winning premiership teams of 1994, 1995 and 2001 in D, C and B

Sections, a Club Best and Fairest winner and member of the Club's Team of the Century, George had been a typical "heart and soul" member of his Club.

At the Umpires' Annual pre-finals Dinner awards were made to – Peter Simpson and Geoff Curran (Life Membership), John Robinson and Phil Callil (10 Years Service), Ben Ryde (Golden Whistle Award), Simon Stokes (Most Improved Field Umpire) and Peter Angelis (Best First Year Umpire).

10 YEARS AGO – 1999

In A Section, St Kevins played St Bernards and with the final four settled, SKOBS were looking to strengthen their form for the coming finals' series. St Bernards would finish in the middle but were determined to finish on a winning note. And what a close contest it became – SKOBS holding a slight advantage at quarter time and maintained the narrow margin (1 goal) at half time. The third quarter was torrid stuff as St Bernards tried to get their noses in front and while they threatened, SKOBS held firm. The final term commenced with both forward lines looking very dangerous. Damian Ryan and Sam Lowerson the main targets for SKOBS and Nick Mitchell and Jason Gollant prominent for the Bernies. Despite the importance of a strong finish by SKOBS with a first semi-final looming, St Bernards closed in and hit the front just before the bell to win 18.12 to 17.12 in an entertaining game. Best players – J Gollant (7), N Mitchell (5), Gleeson, Harvey, S Perrett, Osborne (St Bernards) and Finch, Callery, Perrett, Powell, D Ryan (5), Fraser (SKOBS).

In B Section, Mazenod hosted Beaumaris and had to win to have a chance of making the four and at the same time needing Old Paradians to defeat North Old Boys. Neither of these prognostications were impossible. Mazenod started slowly as Beaumaris made the most of their chances but the home side had sneaked in front by half time. Five goals each in the third term set the scene for a desperate last quarter and it was Mazenod who wanted it more as they forged a 15.11 to 13.7 victory. They had more reason to celebrate as soon as they found out NOBS had been beaten; they could now prepare for the finals. Best players – O'Donoghue, Polin, McMullin, Belleville (3), Cavanagh, Ryan (Mazenod) and Mitchell, Lee, M Quinn (3), Rowbury, Sherman, Ensor (Beaumaris).

In C Section, although the game between Ivanhoe and Old Ivanhoe Grammarians could affect relegation, it never even came close as Ivanhoe smashed the Grammar boys 22.15 to 3.7. Ivanhoe would live to fight another season in C Section whilst Old Ivanhoe would accompany St Kevins to D Section for the 1990 season. Old Ivanhoe could not even muster the strength to submit their best players and goal kickers. Ivanhoe acknowledged the efforts of Lengacher (6), Donohue, Barro, Gittos (5), Witchell and Barro.

In D Section, it was a preview of the following week's second semi-final as Thomastown (1st) and Old Mentonians (2nd) went into battle. Thomastown's home ground advantage meant for nothing in the first quarter when Old Mentonians had 15 shots on goal to their 4, however, Mentone only converted 4 times to lead 4.11 to 2.2 at the first break. Thomastown went into top gear in the second term and kicked 5.9 to Mentonians' single behind and in a tight third quarter, held their lead, albeit narrowed to 11 points. In a great last quarter for the ladder leaders and possibly a huge psychological advantage in the weeks ahead, Thomastown kicked 5.10 to run out very easy winners, 13.23 to 8.15. Best players – Karalambelas (4), Molella, Leavold, Koulinos, Carroll, F Farchione (Thomastown) and Gardner, Newman, G Buxton, R Buston, Barrett, Grant (Old Mentonians).

Two centuries had been recorded by Sharpshooters to date. Wilson of La Trobe University (E Section) and McGowan of Williamstown were on 105 and 102 goals respectively. McGowan remarkably kicked 24 goals in the last round against the hapless Eltham!

30 YEARS AGO – 1979

In C Section, St Kevins faced up to top team Kew and needed to win to cement their place in the four. It also depended on the result of the St Kilda CBC versus Old Ivanhoe game with St Kilda needing to win to have a chance of taking St Kevins fourth spot. St Kevins were up against it early in the game as the Kew powerhouse sprung into action with 7.5 to 2.2 at quarter time. SKOBS fought back to get within three and a half goals at half time. Kew kicked clear again in the third and were too powerful in the fourth as SKOBS went down 18.14 to 23.15 in a valiant effort. Waiting for the results of the St Kilda CBC game to come through SKOBS half expected the result, a St Kilda win and SKOBS out of the finals' race!

In D Section, games went pretty much to expectations with the exception of the loss by second placed Bulleen Templestowe to fifth placed Old Carey Grammarians. No real damage however to the Combine who would still face up to hot favourites MHSOB in the second semi final.

The boys from Bulleen clearly took their feet of the pedal having led at half time then allowing Old Carey to kick 14 goals to 7 in the second half; final score Old Carey 19.12 to 15.18. Best players – McHarg, McMahon, Loader, Harrison (4), R Weir, Smith (Old Carey) and Ling, Lockhart, Clark (6), Kelly (Bulleen Templestowe).

40 YEARS AGO – 1969

In E Section, Elsternwick hosted Old Mentonians and the visitors needed a big win to take Elsternwick's place in the four. Elsternwick made it clear in the first quarter that their spot was not up for grabs with 8.3 to 3.3 and went further ahead by half time. Mentonians rallied in the third term but could not make up the difference and with 7 goals in the final term, Elsternwick were looking forward to the commencement of the finals the following week. Best players – Fitzsimmons, Ramsay, Caravias (5), Sharpe (3), Everett, Holt (Elsternwick) and Sinclair, Jamieson, Pearson, Vinning, Robertson, Moloney (Old Mentone).

In the final round in Junior Section 2, Army Apprentices scored a huge win over National Bank, 38.34 to 0.1. Unfortunately for the Army lads, they finished 2 points outside the top four. Despite a very difficult season, National Bank, were to be congratulated for completing the season and avoiding a last round walk over. The bankers had only scored 221 points for the entire season and finished with a percentage of 6.4, one of the lowest on record. They did however have 8 points for the season due to the bye in this section! Best players Clapton (6), Kelly (8), Prince (13), Black (3), Terry (Army Apprentices) and Canty, Garro, K Bentley, Miller, Kurpell, Vale (National Bank).

50 YEARS AGO – 1959

The Association Best and Fairest award winners were announced. A Section – I Law (Old Scotch) 1st, J Winneke (Uni Blacks) 2nd, D Wright (Alphington) 3rd, G Hibbins (Collegians) 4th. B Section – J Nelson (MHSOB) 1st, L Eldering (Commonwealth Bank) 2nd, I Mort (Kew) 3rd, F Hillyear (Coburg) 4th, I Redpath (Geelong) 5th. C Section – R Harrison (Caulfield Grammarians) 1st, K Shearn (UHS Old Boys) 2nd, D Foster (UHS Old Boys) 3rd, R Conway (Port Melbourne) 4th, H Marston (Bellfield) 5th. D Section - J Douglas (SKOBS) 1st, W McGrory (Murrumbidgee) 2nd, P Kalman (AJAX) 3rd. E Section – I Hughes (West Brunswick) 1st, R McLellan (Old Brighton) 2nd, C Batrouney (Old Trinity) 3rd. Junior Section – R Smith (Hampton Rovers) 1st, R Humphries (Alphington) and G Eddy (West Brunswick) Eq 2nd, B Currie (University) 3rd.

Old Carey's Captain, David Yuille, became the first player for his club to reach 100 games. David, a founding member of the club, continued to play an important part on and off the field.

D3 SECTION

by Stephen Clarke

Well folks, with just a game to go in our regular home and away year we can now confirm that our top four is not settled nor is the only relegation spot settled. In what can only be described as a dramatic season I can not think the VFA would have wanted our section go any other way. Unlike Under 19's competitions of just last week we have no forfeits, we have just good old fashioned family football being fostered in all parts of Melbourne.

We may as well start at Ferndale Park, where players were greeted with surprisingly warm and breezy conditions. Coach Grace knew that it was D Day for his chargers and only a win would satisfy the objective all the way back to their planning day in January for 2009, that is, play finals. For too long the 'Wicks had known their ability when shown in maximum gear can trouble any D3 side but they were resigned to the fact that some road performances were below standard in the past few seasons and that had to change. This was another commanding road show from the red and black and a terrific victory against a very well organised St Mary's Salesian side. A total of 34 scoring shots showed the dominance of the away team who are not troubled on small to medium sized grounds and have now matured into a consistent four quarter package. Their best result here I guess was the fact they did not allow the home team multiple scorers that we have been used to. In fact, their score of just ten goals twelve behinds was a poor return on such a day.

Monash who just had to hang tough all day at St Francis Xavier endured a harsh reality check against this competitions most exciting prospect. I say most exciting given their tender age of the club and the way they are so committed to playing all day football. The Gryphons were on the board early which was critical but then a procession of classy goals ensured the X Men held a strong lead at half time. There are some hard nuts in the home side line up and Mathers and Pryor lead the team in that area. Again in the 3rd term the Xmen, kicking with the aid of the strong breeze kicked 7 goals for the term to not only put the game in no doubt, but get some much needed form before the finals. The highlight in the final term was a super goal from Spencer, off the ground from a boundary throw in. It was a dreadful result for Monash in the context of their relegation battle, as they could possibly hang on through percentage if they and Powerhouse do not register wins in the final round. However the home side needed form running into finals and were red hot all day. It should be noted how far the home side has come as their seconds kicked twenty four goals for the day here and have stormed home after a terrible start to the year.

That relegation battle we refer to is with Powerhouse right now and they had another tough road trip this time to Doveton and the St John's boys, who desperately needed a result to keep a chance alive for fourth spot. This game had so much riding on it and the Piranhas again just had to hang in there and take it goal by goal. One of the big issues that has faced the travelling team here is goals outside Edwards when they elect to play him forward. Any team realises the value of strong marking options who can contribute with six pointers, and this squad just not have any in form. A side that was 5 and 4 now find themselves 5 and 12 after another loss. St Johns have improved their scoring options since 2008 and through Scott and Peake they were able to mangle a score again over 100 points. Ben Pickering is very adapt in a game of cricket but people shouldn't forget his football prowess either. Another great season from the club champion.

The Hawks went south to the lush surrounds of Benteleigh Reserve knowing this was last roll of the dice time. I thought their set up would enjoy the open forward expanses of the ground the conditions were going to suit a high scoring affair which never bothers them. The home side have been enormous all season and really excelled to lead our competition well. The Benteleigh was short the leagues leading goal score in Sharp but enjoy having a back up in Laskey and Robertson. The first half was thoroughly entertaining and the home side was just three points ahead and not able to shake the Hawks. But perhaps it was fitting that in the 'third' or Premiership quarter Benteigh won a lot of contested ball, controlled the tempo and converted accordingly. In the end the 48 point margin seemed fair and the travellers here have just struggled against the better opponents over a whole day.

A prevailing breeze was noticeable at McAlister oval for the local derby of sorts with the Magpies hosting Uni

High. Both sides have been good in recent times and this was a tough and close affair most of the day. Uni have at times not done too well with converting a score with all their hard work and this was on show again this week. Their six goals was not a big enough return here and the home side were too consistent inside their forward arc. Shannon Moangle did well to hold down the defensive side of things for the home team in his best effort for the year. Magugan and Gall also continued their good form of late to help the Magpies to another home victory.

So the top three (not in order) is now done and dusted. The battle for second is between St Marys Salesian and St Francis Xavier is separated by 4% or about 40 points.

For fourth place Elsternwick lead the battle by just 3% and need a good showing to hold on given their draw.

The relegation spot sees Powerhouse uncomfortably hold an advantage of just 4%.

TIPS –

Yes, margins here will have impact everywhere.

Powerhouse host Benteleigh, just need to go into lock down and impersonate the set of Outbreak. Who will be their Dustin Hoffman or Renae Russo ? Away team by 50 points.

St Johns to beat Monash as they are gunning for finals but only by say 10 points. That has Powerhouse staying up, by hey, I'm no math degree holder. Elsternwick will be going off like a fish milkshake at home to the X Men and win their way to a finals existence whilst our less poignant moments see Hawthorn beat the Magpies by ten goals and St Mary's Salesian hold second spot beating Uni High.

What a finish !

I'm not sure when the 'Wizard' transported tornado alley to Melbourne but I am sure I spotted a certain onballer clicking his red boots together and whispering "There's no place like home. There's no place like home..." as we were plagued by yet another blustery day, albeit in bright sunshine. Whilst we have experienced yet another dry winter I am certain we have never seen one so windy.

The match of the round at Kevin Bartlett reserve certainly displayed a final like atmosphere as the Rams locked horns with the Snakes. With Luke Evans applying a vice-like grip to Nathan Nuske and Justin Roberts converting up forward the Rams bounced out to an early lead in the first quarter. With twelve scoring shots to three Mt Lilydale's lead could have been even bigger however accurate foot-skills were at a premium in the ravenous gale. Richmond duly countered in the second, with Daniel Pike consistently clearing the ball from the centre and Dean Sutherland pushing hard forward to kick a couple. At half time only a solitary goal separated the two sides. In the third Richmond applied the clamps to Mt Lilydale, with some dour defence, and assisted by some poor shooting for goal, managed to restrict the Rams to only two goals and a narrow 16 pt lead. IN the final quarter, despite an early goal to the away team, Richmond Central were able to kick some long goals to bridge the gap and sneak ahead at the final bell. Kevin Maniscalchi was a fantastic four quarter contributor for Mt Lilydale, whilst Snake, Roo Liddie again showed why he is one of the premier wingmen in the competition.

South Mornington placed themselves within sniffing distance of a finals berth in only their second season with a big win over Chadstone. From the first bounce the Tiger onballers dominated proceedings with Michael Heib carrying the ball by a string, and coach Shane Mottram providing huge problems for the Synners' backline. Each quarter the home side extended their lead despite some strong defensive efforts by Damon Cuming and at the final bell had recorded a huge victory. Whilst only Manningham apparently stands between South and the finals, they would need to be fully prepared as the Cobras would rate themselves a good chance of a home victory and will steel themselves to shape the finals.

At Elgar Park the Cobras kicked first with the breeze, and with youngster Chris Arman continuing to display some fantastic endeavour, the away side jumped out to an early lead. In the second the Demons duly bounced back like their AFL counterparts and with Dan Penny showing some of his trademark skill, managed to claw back the lead. At half time the game was virtually even and the ability to score against the wind was going to prove crucial. In the third Craig Irvine duly responded, and provided the catalyst across half forward as Box Hill North managed an outstanding six goals to three into the avaricious gale. Despite Stevie Sheales again showing a clean pair of heels, Manningham were unable to edge back into the game and Box Hill North continued their determined efforts of the past couple of weeks, epitomised by Chris Langley's fantastic defensive efforts.

With the Eastern boundary umpire enjoying a quiet day as the wind pushed the ball to the South-West pocket, James Sutton showed that there was still some spring in his well-worn legs controlling the ruck for the Falcons. Albert Park struck hard early despite a slight wind disadvantage, and quickly established a comfortable lead. Jason Harkins was working hard for North in defence; however Albert Park were showing the important ability to find multiple goal-kickers. In the second they extended their lead, and despite some great fight from the green and gold, continued to increase the margin, albeit slightly, as the match wore on. Backmen Olly Winchester and Justin Kane provided drive for the Falcons who appear to have a lot of depth, and with a couple of players possibly returning next week Albert Park will be very hard to beat in the finals. Ben Williams was great for North Brunswick as was competition best and fairest contender Adam Jeffrey.

Eley Park managed to hold onto a five goal lead going into the last quarter with David Bennett and Michael Viola leading the way. As in quite a few games this season the Razorbacks were unable to quite snare victory as they fought back hard. Adam 'Misty' Hyman worked hard for the home side, as did ex-Dragon Big V player Jimmy Lees.

In a thriller between two closed-lipped sides, Kew just snuck home at Victoria Park. In a match that was closely contested all day, the Bears managed to edge home to keep themselves in prime position for third spot, and to create the possibility of a repeat of this contest in the first week of the finals. Tim Bagnall kicked his fiftieth goal for the year, and the having a key forward kick a bag of goals was possibly the difference as Latrobe had a bevy of goal-kickers but only the solitary multiple goal-kicker in Dean Sheldrick.

ROUND 18 PREVIEWS

Match of the Round Mt Lilydale v Albert Park

The Rams will have one last dip at playing finals by throwing everything at Albert Park. Justin Roberts is in fine form, as are the Rams on-ball division and a home victory in not inconceivable. The Falcons however are hard to fault, and with top spot still on the line, will be difficult to shake. I think Albert Park will be victorious by 8 points.

Manningham v South Mornington

Manningham will be keen to upset the Tigers' finals plans, and Warwick 'Bangers' De Vercelli will attempt to dash the Southerners hopes with more of his bone-shattering runs. South will come out fired up however and just hold the edge by 7 points.

Nth Brunswick v Kew

Kew cannot afford to relax after last week or they will find themselves in a sudden death final, in two weeks. North at home will be hard to roll, but with more to play for the Bears should sneak home by 9 points.

Chadstone v Richmond Central

Unfortunately for the Synners the Snakes will attempt to bridge the percentage gap between Kew and themselves and will record a large victory by 88 pts.

Latrobe University v Swinburne Uni

In the battle of the academics, Latrobe will enjoy the return to the expanses of their home ground and run the legs of the Razorbacks; LaTrobe Uni by 34 points.

Eley Park v Box Hill North

With a great local derby to finish the season, two relatively inform sides will attempt to finish on a high. I am going to have one last attempt at tipping a draw between two evenly matched units.

Reserves: MTL, SM, NB, EP, LTU and RC to be victorious in the reserves this week.

Please submit reports by midday Monday to deejaypalmer@bigpond.com please keep those team of the year nominations coming in. It would be nice to receive some from all clubs.

Under 18s

by Joe Morsello

Joe's Jargon

The Krushers have firmed into solid favouritism after a strong last quarter signifying they're the main player. You would feel that the Oaks v Bullants Grand Final quinella is the short priced favourite but finals as they normally do throw up some extra pressure and anything can be expected although these two sides have been the best all year and deserve their place. But there is still one round to go and two sides vying for one spot in the four. Also, I tipped zero of four this week, why the VAFA intrust me with this job I'm not sure.....

Last Round:

St Bernards v UHS / Flem: In a low scoring affair, St Bernards defeated UHS to gain some momentum coming into finals and put some pressure on the ultra consistent UHS lads. Jones was the difference it seemed for the snow dogs kicking 3 goals in a best on ground performance. The St Bernards boys have hit their straps at the right time that is for sure. Better players for UHS were Everist and Coombe who we have become accustomed too.

Northern Bullants v Oakleigh: Well match of the round was up and going until the last change but after that it was all Oakleigh as they put the foot down to pull away to win by a cool 49 points and more importantly for them continue to flex their muscle. Pappon and Scott were up to their old tricks as per usual with the Krushers forwards making the most of their opportunities. For the Bullants it was Simcoe and Beames leading from the front.

Old Camberwell v St Marys / Salesian: Camberwell chucked in some Under 19s players and smashed the saints to the tune of 125 points. With Jos Op't Hoog kicking 8 large ones, brother Mitch on the opposing side could only watch on as he lead the charge for the Victors. Harris and Penn - Tonkin were in amongst it for Camberwell, and for the Saints it was Batchler and Bartley who tried hard.

St Bedes / Mentone Tigers v Therry Penola: Therry made a habit of beating the Tigers with a 3 point victory handing the St Bedes lad yet another loss. Therry have improved over the last few weeks and have had some hard fought deserved wins to their tally. Better players for Therry were Cauchi and Dojcsak with the Tigers well supported by Baird and Hodges.

This Week:

UHS/Flem v Old Camberwell: A must win for UHS. Should be strong enough here but it depends on what sort of side Camberwell decide to play. UHS by 17 points.

Oakleigh v St Bernards: Oakleigh to be too strong. Oaks by 34 points.

Therry Penola v Northern Bullants: Bullants to bounce back to the tune of ten goals.

St Bedes/Mentone Tigers v St Marys/Salesian: A Tigers win would most likely ensure a top four finish with a superior percentage getting them over the line. Saints have a good record against them and will looking to finish on a strong note. Tigers by 12 points.

It is getting close to that time of the year for the U18 Team of the year side to be announced. Please send through any nominations to me.

Any match reports, information, banter related to my column and correspondence will be most appreciated. Please send by 5pm Monday. Don't be shy. Please email to joe@vafa.com.au

UNDER 19 PREMIER

You had to feel sorry for Dino; drawing the early game in a SBMT Vs Xavs triple header at Brindisi St wasn't ideal. As if it wasn't tough enough getting your side prepared to play at a time when most Auskickers are still pouring milk over their weet-bix. Trying to coax your clearest tactical thoughts out 5 hours earlier than usual and hoping all of your player's alarm clocks work, you also have to deal with that nagging feeling of being watched. Players parents, club supporters and administrators all look to the coach for assured decision making that's in the best interest of the team but rarely at this level can a coach turn around and see so many of his peers scrutinizing his sides every move.

Under the watchful eyes of the other finals bound coaches from De La, Old Scotch and Uni Blues, Old Xavs battled kicking into the wind in the first quarter while St Bedes Mentone Tigers went long at every opportunity. With the breeze however The Claret and Stout looked smart, patiently and systematically finding the forward in the best position to score and the results began to come. The second half was a pretty even affair with no side able to put the other away until with only 4 minutes to go Xavs hit the lead and then followed up shortly after with the sealer. For the Tigers Dale Foley was amongst everything while for Old Xavarians the lively Tristan Parker was super impressive in his first game in the Premier division following a sensational season in the North 2 line up.

Later in the day all eyes turned to Banksia Reserve as Beaumaris hosted Uni Blues in a battle that would have a huge impact on fourth spot and early on it looked as though the Sharks had the answers. After the first break though Uni Blues gained the upper hand with some solid defensive work the Blue Boys strangled Beauy's forward supply and in turn hit up their numerous forward threats and extended their lead throughout the remainder of the day. Best for The Sharks were Tim Lees and Greg Roberts while for Uni Blues Angus Nice and Ben McClure were all class.

Rupertswood traveled to Camberwell desperate to beat Old Scotch and give themselves every opportunity to avoid relegation however Old Scotch were themselves desperate for a win to right the ship a couple of weeks out from finals. Right the ship they did, comprehensively smashing The Woodsman on their way to a 19 goal victory. Standouts were everywhere for The Cards as 10 different goal scorers joined in the party while Ash Lim continued his rich vein of form. For Rupo, Kayne Murphy and Ahren Berry provided most highlights in what was a forgettable day for the undermanned Sunburians.

The Eagles continued their late season run taking care of next door neighbours Old Trinity to the tune of 14 goals. Running with no bench Old Trinity were in the game early but had the goal radar slightly off and unfortunately while they were scoring behinds Marcellin were kicking straight and after quarter time could no longer contain The Eagles who powered away with the win. Best for OT were Nick Birrell and Thomas Fogarty while for Marcellin Dan McMahon with 9 goals was the standout Premier player of the round.

A rare Sunday fixture saw De La Salle (Blues) travel to Melbourne Uni to take on Uni Blues in what was expected to be a one sided affair. Conditions weren't great for clean, free flowing footy and both teams struggled to put the score on the board. The resulting slog went the way of De La with Kieran Ellis and Aiden Orr-O'Farrell amongst the votes for the Blue and Gold. Zachary O'Connor from Uni Blacks rounds out my all Irish best player report getting plenty of the pill on a dirty day for the Uni side.

With the final four settled unless Xavs and Beaumaris both win by 20+ goals (won't happen) our attention turns to the lower rungs. Rumor abounds that yet another shake up of the U19 divisions is coming but for now I'll treat it as the normal 2 down 2 up scenario meaning Old Trinity will drop with either Marcellin or Rupertswood to follow.

The Eagles take on De La Salle (Blues) with De La to win by 6 goals meaning the game at Rupertswood between Rupo and St Bedes Mentone Tigers is the match de jour. The Tigers showed glimpses of what could have been last week against Xavs and won't go away without a fight while Rupo have no choice but to win. This will be a cracker with the road trip taking it's toll on The Tiges and The Woodsman to survive in Premier another year. Rupo by 2 goals.

Xavs over Blues by a goal or two. Old Scotch by 5 goals against Beauy. Old Trinity to say ciao to premier with a 2 goal win. Please send your Team of the Year nominations to ross26@inet.net.au The side will appear in the GF edition of this article.

DAMO'S BALL

Round 17 Review - North 1

Old Carey have continued their "Collingwood" like season, continuing their form with an important victory over St Bernards. Chiuchiarelli was best afield booting 3 goals and stealing 4th spot from St Bernards, who now drop out of the four with a game to play.

Fitzroy has held 3rd spot with a 5 goal win over Bulleen Temp, thanks to another huge bag from Turner. The star forward kicked 5 as Fitzroy move in on September action. Genovesi kicked 8 for the Bombers, as they stitched up 2nd spot with a huge win over Manningham. Ravanello also starred for Old Essendon, who are set to play off with Old Camberwell in the first week of the finals.

Round 17 Review - North 2

Ivanhoe has kept their final hopes alive with a game to go, with a smashing victory over Aquinas. The Hoes were dominant all day, whilst Lachlan Barnes was a lone star for the Collegians.

Emmaus held onto 4th spot with a narrow win over La Trobe away. La Trobe held their stead, leading the whole match, but Emmaus kicked 3.9 in the last quarter keeping La Trobe scoreless, finishing the game with a 7 point victory. Foreman was outstanding, the match winner for St Leos.

Old Geelong has bounced back with a comfortable win over Fitzroy by 65 points. Officer was dominant again with 5 majors, to guarantee OG the double chance.

Therry Penola was upset in the last quarter to go down by 3 goals to challengers Old Westborne. A well defended 3rd quarter set it up for the home side, who took control of windy conditions in the last to break away. O'Brien and Turner were dominant all day for the winning squad.

And in the final match, Old Xavs showed no signs of tanking with a comprehensive win over Rupertswood. Elliot and Lyons booted 10 between them for the home side, who have hit a nice patch of form late this season.

Round 18 TIPS - North 1

Old Carey to create huge upset, 3 points- keeps them in 4th, Old Camberwell on top.

Old Essendon by 70 points, to finish 2nd.

Fitzroy by 93 points over Manningham Sharks, keeps them in 3rd.

St Bernards to beat Banyule by plenty, and will only make the top four if Old Carey lose.

Round 18 TIPS - North 2

La Trobe by 40 points.

Old Xavs by 1 point to keep Ivanhoe in 5th spot.

Old Westborne by 10 points to finish 3rd, with Emmaus to keep 4th on percentage.

Old Geelong by 165 points to finish on top.

Therry Penola by 40 points to finish 2nd.

Review:

Well that smell of finals footy is so close I can taste it. The big question this week is do the St Kevins lads want to be there? Two weeks ago they were looking to secure a double chance then they drop two games and find themselves a game out of the 4. In diabolical trouble they were beaten at the weekend by a far more desperate De La Salle who have really busted their chops to be competitive in South 1 this year after fielding another side it is a real credit to a strong VAFA club. The final margin was 34 points.

Old Brighton have remained in the 4 after a Caulfield belting to the tune of 62 points. J. Portelli booted 4 and P. Healey had a ton of prune. The Brighters need a win to stay in the 4 next week as the Kev's have a Bye but this is the case for De La salle and Ormond also.

Speaking of Ormond they again had another solid win as they smashed Mazenod by 146 points. J. Plostins booted 6 and S. Clements jagged 5 as the Monders face the daunting task of knocking off the Burners to play finals in season 09.

The Collegians continued their 2nd half sprint to the finish line as they again recorded another impressive win over Old Haileybury by 40 points. A terrific finish to the season from the Collegians.

Melburnians had the week on ice in preparation for this years final campaign.

Preview:

De La Salle vs. Mazenod: De La to secure a finals birth.

Caulfield vs. Old Haileybury: Caulfield by 6 goals.

Collegians vs. Old Brighton: a must win for Old Brighton 5 goals.

Old Melburnians vs. Ormond: Ormond need to win and ill give them a chance. 2 goals.

St Kevins to rely on the bye getting them in the final 4.

South 2

Review:

One week remains until teams can begin to fight for the ultimate prize in South 2 this season. Bring it on. Kick things off with Monash this week as they defeated the Vultures at home by a nail biting 9 points. For the Blues M.McCart and L.Waldron put on a clinic as the uni lads enjoyed some reward for a tough season.

Hampton just got the job done this week against the Pirates as they edged out winners by 33 points. J. Baxter & B. Culvenor kept the Hampton Rovers on their game as they can't wait to enter the finals ahead.

Bentleigh is in vintage form after defeating the Beauy Sharks by 10 goals this week. B. Morrison booted 5 and was well fed by T. Backman & N. Porebski who had too much prune for the oppositions liking.

Prahran enjoyed (like the Ashes) some Reward for their efforts this season as they belted the MHSOB by a whopping 114 points. T. Maya & J. Musster were solid contributors on the day and have finished their season out in style.

Ajax had their work cut out for them this week against a gallant Mentonians but just didn't have the class that the Jackers possessed as they went down by a measly 3 goals. E. Macquire battled hard for the Tonners but it was N. Rischin for the Jackers who showed great poise at crucial times in the game, proving to be too strong for Old Mentone.

Preview:

Prahran vs. Beaumaris: Prahran 50 points.

Bentleigh vs. Ajax: Bentleigh to gain a big scalp. 3 goals.

Hampton rovers vs. Old Mentonians: Hampton by 8 goals.

Monash Blues vs. Peninsula: Monash by 5 goals

MHSOB vs. Parkdale: Parky by plenty 70+.

CLUB XVIII SECTION

by Norm Nugent

Conditions last Sunday really tested the stamina and adaptability of all players as winds blew and swirled around Sports Cover Arena throughout the seven hours of play. In addition rain fell for a long period. In contrast the South Section Preliminary Final on the previous Friday evening was played in clear and mild conditions. Of my predictions only Old Brighton won; so my success rate was a mere 25%.

REVIEW OF PRELIMINARY FINALS

Section 1

By scoring a hard earned victory by nine points, Collegians broke their three game losing streak in finals. University Blues, who kicked against the wind after winning the toss, were first to score and after a low scoring opening quarter, the Blues led by five points at the first change.

The second quarter saw only three scoring shots with the solitary goal being kicked for Collegians who led by a point at half time.

Only inaccuracy up forward prevented Collegians from holding a lead greater than five points at three quarter time. The Blues seemed to tire and Collegians greater height combined with their cleaner ball handling seemed likely to result in victory.

Perhaps the Blues thought the wind would aid their final quarter attacks but in reality their own inept kicking for goal assisted by the greater aerial strength of the Collegians rucks and defenders meant the Blues were unable to wrest the lead at any stage. A late goal by Collegians was the "sealer" and gave them an eight point victory.

Collegians best were: Ross, Wozniak, Cook and the ever reliable, veteran, Dave Perkov.

For University Blues: Wilson, the veterans Callery and "Bomber" Thomas as well as Captain Coach, Tom. Granleese were best.

Section 2

Rain fell throughout the first half of this game as Minor Premiers, University Blacks and Old Brighton battled for the right to challenge Marcellin for the premiership.

The Blacks had first advantage of the wind but determined Brighton defence held them to three goals. Conversely when Old Brighton did go forward they were able to add two goals. Low scoring continued into the second quarter, when Old Brighton only managed two goals with the wind to one by the Blacks into it. At half time the Blacks led by a point.

The rain had ceased by the third quarter, which really belonged to Old Brighton, who with surer ball handling added four goals while restricting the Blacks to a solitary goal.

In the last quarter, there was no scoring until at the ten minute mark. Old Brighton then attacked for the diminutive, Matthew Jackson to score a lifting goal from an acute angle.

Quickly the Black's Coach, Lincoln Merlo replied and his example was followed by his teammates whose late rally left them just ten points short of their quest as the game wound down to the final siren.

Best for Old Brighton were: Nicholls, Matthew Jackson, Jackson Maguire and Sest (5 goals)

For the Blacks the defeat meant another premature finish to a successful season and a third successive Preliminary Final loss.

North

Old Essendon, who opened with the wind advantage, held out Banyule in the first quarter as they led by twenty two points at the first change.

The second quarter advantage again belonged to Old Essendon, who while conceding three goals to Banyule, kicked three themselves into the wind. At half time Old Essendon led by twenty one points.

The third quarter again provided an even contest as each side added three goals, which enabled Old Essendon to lead by twenty six points at the last change. A third quarter highlight was the long goal, "soccered" off the cricket practice area and into the wind by Banyule veteran, David Williams.

The last quarter provided a tense contest as Banyule players repeatedly sent the ball forward as they tried to claim the lead. Banyule's efforts petered out when they trailed by a point. Old Essendon, in a rare forward move, then goaled to secure a seven point victory.

Best for Old Essendon were: Michael Flaherty with four goals, veteran Brett Papal, Tootell and Howard.

Scott Playfair, Gray, Hazelwood and Herbert were best for Banyule.

South

Ormond regained lost form when they outlasted Caulfield Grammarians by twenty points to earn another chance to challenge Old Melburnians for the premiership.

The game provided a close contest for most of its duration with neither team being able gain the ascendancy. Generally each defence outplayed the opposing forwards and often players were forced to win the ball from a pack. Late in the final quarter Ormond was able to break away and kick three unanswered goals to give themselves their twenty point winning margin.

Best for Ormond were: Tom Haysom, Matt. Holman and Brendan March.

For Caulfield Grammarians: Tom Judson, Scott Saunders and the consistent Simon Cunliffe were adjudged best.

PREVIEW OF GRAND FINALS

Section 1

Today's opponents Old Xaverians 2 and Collegians have played twice this season. The Xaverians have won both games ... by six points in Round 9 and by the minimum margin (in extra time) in the Second Semi Final.

Judged on these performances another close contest should ensue today. How have Collegians' players recovered from last Sunday's conditions? The week's rest surely will be in the Old Xaverian's favour.

In the semi final, Morton proved an effective forward and the Collegians' defenders led by Perkov and Schnoknecht must again be able to negate Xaverians forward thrusts.

The final's to date have been low scoring affairs in which defenders have done well. Can a forward take control today?

I expect a close encounter although I favour the Old Xaverians because of their previous victories and because of their fresher legs.

Section 2

The season's third clash between Marcellin and Old Brighton should provide a fitting climax to the season. Their first meeting was at Bulleen in Round 9 when Marcellin won by forty one points. At Brighton Beach in Round 14, Old Brighton triumphed by twenty seven points. It is a football axiom that forwards win matches and so it has been borne out between these teams. At Marcellin, Gary Petroff, Dustin Cracknell and Lachlan Hansen were all multiple scorers. Sest for Old Brighton kicked four goals in Round 14 and is in form as he kicked five last Sunday. Today's winning team will be the one whose forwards can gain the ascendancy.

Who from Marcellin can negate Matthew Jackson? Can Old Brighton stop Armstrong, Dignam and Aboud from influencing the result?

There are likely to be many vital duels in this game so to predict the winner is really difficult. I lean to Marcellin, whom Old Brighton Coach, Marcus Barber considers to be the best his team has encountered, simply because they rested last Sunday while Old Brighton battled in the heavy conditions at Sportscover Arena.

GRAND FINAL

MARCELLIN v OLD BRIGHTON
SUNDAY AT SPORTSCOVER ARENA AT 12.10PM

North

Old Ivanhoe and Old Essendon clash for the fourth time this season today, with honours favouring Old Ivanhoe two wins to one.

In the semi final, Old Ivanhoe came from behind to defeat Old Essendon, who then had a hard game last Sunday in the wind and rain while Old Ivanhoe players relaxed.

A significant factor in deciding the outcome of this game could be the overall evenness of the Old Ivanhoe side. In each of their three games six different players have been named as the best whereas Old Essendon have relied on the efforts of Flaherty, who has been a prolific goal kicker. Williamson, the fleet footed Fernando and Overman are three other players on whom Old Essendon has relied.

Judged on their overall performances this season there is very little difference in the respective strengths of these two sides. I suspect that Old Ivanhoe will win simply because they will outstay Old Essendon as they did two weeks ago.

GRAND FINAL

OLD IVANHOE v OLD ESSENDON
SUNDAY AT SPORTSCOVER ARENA AT 9.45AM

South

On form it would seem that Old Melburnians will be the shortest priced favourite in this week's four Grand Finals as they have thrice defeated Ormond including two crushing wins in the past three weeks.

Can Ormond cause an upset? Given good use of any prevailing wind they can extend Old Melburnians. To achieve success each Ormond player must concentrate on matching his opponent and on being prepared to assist his team mates. By cutting the supply of the ball to Klutke, who has kicked fifteen goals in his last two games against Ormond, the Ormond ruckmen and defenders will greatly help their team's cause.

Old Melburnians are not unbeatable and strange results do emanate from Grand Finals. (Think 1995 and 2005 in Club XV111) However on form I must select the Old Melburnians.
