CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER

SHOW ME THE MONEY!

One of the pleasures in my life is to sit down with my bacon and eggs on a Sunday morning and devour the previous day's sports results and commentaries in the newspapers. I read just about every word in the Age and then recheck in the Herald Sun just to make sure it's right.

Well, last Sunday I nearly choked on my Weeties when I read Brent Diamond's piece headed "Frankston may fold as funds dry up".

"The Dolphins, who receive $140,000 annually from AFL Victoria, are not guaranteed the same amount next season and say they can't foresee their future beyond this season," was the claim. You could have knocked me down with a feather! That's $140,000 for fifty players – none of whom are likely to be drafted.

What would $140,000 do for your club's budget? Remember, we are not talking about elite players, but for the most part, second tier players who are arguably not any better than those running around at your club.

Last year the VAFA received $20,000 from AFL Victoria, of which $7,500 is returned for Football Development, and $38,000 from the AFL for draft compensation. A total of $50,500 for the season – that's not per club, remember, but for the entire Association and its (then) 73 clubs.

Thank goodness we just paid off our final instalment of $1250 off a loan to AFL Victoria for legal fees for the HIV case from ten years ago.

Dolphins President John Barry went on to say "That's the thing that we're worried about. The less revenue the AFL gives to AFL Victoria will flow on to us. We'll be shutting up shop here."

Aren't football clubs supposed to be self sufficient?

During the off season, the AFL requested that the Board of AFL Victoria resign in favour of a commission appointed by the AFL. This was deemed unacceptable by the AFL Victoria Board and a compromise was reached whereby four directors would be nominated by each body, with the proviso that the AFL had right of veto.

As you could imagine, there was no unanimity over this. The motion was defeated at a vote of the members last month. At the conclusion of the meeting, four board members failed to re-apply and AFL Victoria is now administered by just four, with Peter Schwab remaining as the CEO.

At the moment it's all a bit of a mess, but one can understand why the AFL wants to know where its money is going.

Anyway, at least I had the pleasure of going to watch some great VAFA action last weekend.

The arrival of VAFA football seemed to take longer this year due to Easter falling the way it did and the difficulties that the drought has had on everyone's pre-season. A record 120 VAFA matches were played on the weekend, including the new Under 18 competition which has commenced with 8 teams. This number may seem small to the regular VAFA observers who get bombarded with huge numbers about our size, but in 1892 we started with 6 teams and look where we are now.

We welcome to the competition the Northern Bullants FC who are born out of a junior club and are aligned with the senior VFL team. The club has managed a very successful junior club and with their success in the Under 17's had a group of players who wished to continue together. We are confident that we can provide a competitive environment for these players and hopefully they can progress into their own senior club in the future. For the record, they had a 40 point victory over Old Camberwell.

There were many important events scattered throughout the competition. We kicked off with a Friday night D4 match between Albert Park and Richmond Centrals. Sportscover Arena is a great place to host games, particularly on a Friday night, so the ground is available for clubs to utilise early in the season.

Premiership clubs can't wait for the day they can unfurl their pennant from the previous season. This usually provides motivation for a lunch and an opportunity for clubs to promote their new sponsors to the members. Hoisting the flag is a special occasion and one that instils a huge amount of pride in people, many of whom have worked for years to bring some silverware to their club.

Between the reserves and senior matches, we will be having one minute's silence to remember those people who gave their lives for us in all wars. Anzac Day is a great Australian celebration and we pay homage to our heroes by celebrating the great Australian game.

One down, many to go. I thank the four kind souls who wrote and the two who called me with gentle words of encouragement. These balanced out the 107 emails, text and voice-mail messages who expressed unhappiness with the new scribbling arrangements for these pages. I can understand the pining for the Hornet, but demanding the return of Jesper Fjelstad was a bit rough.

It is surely a harrowing experience to be berated by club loyalists for over-rating or under-rating a club's chances, particularly when these stalwarts are from the very same club.

Last week: It was an exciting R1, especially for the five clubs that won. De La pulled the surprise of the round, finally breaking through against Xavs. The Toorak Park partisans took it on the chin, but to say that expect some improvement is to understate matters slightly. De La were clearly fired up and determined to end a long sequence of losses to the X Men.

What more can we say about SBMT, apart from opining that they didn't fluke it last year? They picked up where they left off in the finals and completely hammered Old Essendon last week. Nice day, nice lunch, nice stroll in the park. It doesn't get much better for SBMT fans, while the Essendonians can only hope it doesn't get much worse.

Old Ivanhoe went to Marcellin and gave Glenn Cox's boys a rude welcome back to A Section. The Eagles are usually dangerous at home, but they hardly raised a gallop on the big ground against the Big Brown, who might have led by ten goals at half-time, even quarter-time, had their aim been true.

Uni Blues overcame Collegians with a strong second half. From several accounts, the Purple slowed down after the long break and took their leave at the last change. The brothers Mugavin shared the votes for the Varsity while the evergreen Jono Dixon was best in a losing side.

The pundits' game of the day was the clash at the Beach, with Old Scotch seeking to repeat last season's Opening Day dose. They did so, winning comprehensively. The Tonners had some opportunities in the third quarter, but couldn't take advantage of them. The Cardinals looked confident, fit and aggressive in their first hit-out. James Byrne was outstanding until injured and the young James Bowden, who needs an ID card after five and could get away with paying a kids' fare on the tram, is a real gun.

THIS WEEK

Round 2 is shaping up as a beauty, with four of the five winning teams meeting each other. Winner vs winner in two games; loser vs loser in two others, so the ladder tonight will be stretched thinner than the toppings on a Pizza Hut Perfecto crust.

Scotch vs SBMT: The Cards happy to go home, but perhaps not so enthusiastic about their visitors. However, they were the only team to beat the Beders twice last year, so perhaps the premiers' aura is not quite as visible to them as it is to me. Visitors, just.

Old Ivanhoe vs Xavs: On last week's form, you'd be chalking up an easy win to the Browns. But wait, there's more. The Red 'n' Blacks don't mind playing at Chelsworth, especially when the track is fast. They surely can't be as error-riddled as they were last week, especially with a couple of senior players expected to return. Visitors, just.

Old Essendon vs Old Brighton: Both teams will be a little chastened from last week, though the Tonners may well regain Hendra. This is not an easy ground to play for visiting teams and the home team will surely draw a large and supportive crowd. Surely the Dons' form last week is no real indication of their chances. I suspect OB are the favourite, but I'm on the outsider here in a tight tussle. Home team, by a bit.

Collegians vs Marcellin: If the home team doesn't salute here, the alarm bells might be rung. The Lions surely will perform better in the comfort of their own home, but so too will the Eagles, who will give it a good shake. Is fitness an issue with the Lions? We're about to find out. Home team, late.

De La vs Uni Blues: De La always play well at home and the Blues often struggle there. Is the home team for real or did they just get up for Xavs? If you can do it one week, you can do it the next, but the Varsity might be ready. A toss-up: home team, just.

COLLEGIANS All at Collegians would like to congratulate Charlie Holst on playing his 100th game in round one. Charlie has developed into an outstanding A Grade footballer, is a great clubman and is highly respected by his peers. He has achieved this milestone despite some very serious injuries which may have stopped lesser men. We are very proud of you Charlie and look forward to the next 100!!!!

OLD BRIGHTON Vanders chalks up Old Brighton 150 Andrew van den Dungen, who once responded to poetic inspiration and sank the Noddors into the South Rd. mud off his own boot, claims to have nailed his 150th appearance in last week's Reserves' demolition of Old Scotch, though club records claim that today is his big day. He is probably just angling to be carried off for the second week in a row! "Vandyungen" as Jack Dyer would surely have called him, has been a Tonner stalwart for years, playing many fine senior games up forward, before establishing himself in recent years as The Great Distributor in the Reserves' defence. Recently married, the Pigeon has shown no signs of moderating his quiet cynicism at the bar, nor have his ailing knees restricted the masterful contribution he continues to make on the ground. How good was that one-hander last week! Well done Vandy, from all at the Beach!

OLD IVANHOE would like to congratulate Scott Curatolo on reaching 150 games. In only his 9th year at the club, Scott incredible durability has meant playing nearly every match every year, mostly missing for many State Rep games. Epitomising the term "best and fairest", he's won four at Old Ivanhoe. A key part of the 2005 Premiership Team, Scott keeps on going strong. Described as "the ultimate team player", the club and supporters are looking forward to another standout year by Scott in 2009.

REVIEWS

4/5 tips ain't a bad way to start the season. The Snowdogs managed to prevent this scribe from a perfect score with a performance that rebuffed many preseason detractors. In a game full of desperate acts and at times scrappy play the story of the first half was St. Bernards' ability to convert opportunities while the old adage "bad kicking is bad football" would have been on the minds of Ormond barrackers. The second half saw St. Bernards gradually gain ascendancy aided by some Monder's injuries and indiscipline. The star of the show was the comeback kid Big Bad Busting Ben Jordan. It's always great to see quality players return although I'm not sure many B section defenders will agree!!!!

The press were on hand to witness the Bloods and Trinity commence their seasons, I don't know if the masses that turned out were dyed in wool ammos fan or just wanting to see the debut of this comp most decorated player they were treated to a seesawing affair. Of course all eyes were on one R. Harvey but it was his old mate Stewie Loewe who gave control to the Bloods; using his not insignificant frame to give first use to midfielders and helped OH into a 5 goal lead by the 3rd. Unfortunately for Badlanders this is a four quarter game and aging bodies coupled with Harvs imminent departure saw OT completely dominated the latter stagers of the match. Fair dinkum Amateur Footy star Andy Cultrera was unstoppable with 7 of the best while partner in crime Scott Krakouer (Cousin of ?) simply danced around the tiring opposition to give Trinity faithful the perfect welcome back to B grade.

Over at St Kilda OM's proved the coat tuggers right and put on the style with an impressive all the way victory over the Wellers. Ominously it was the returning stars who did the damage aided by the Davis boys they were simply too good. Encouraging for OC they showed some real character and led by Matt Partington finished the game strongly.

While some were afforded the plush surrounding of the picturesque Junction Oval, Old Carey must have wondered if they had killed 13 black cats in another life as the fixture led them to the Rat Cage. Not to be disheartened they started brightly and in a tight tussle held the slight advantage at both quarter and half time, before skipping out to a 32 point lead early in the 3rd. Unfortunately injuries had begun to mount and when star onballer Freemantle was taken from the field it was the straw that broke the camels back. SKOB Star Benny Dowd put on a clinic for the punters kicking a career best 6 sausage rolls; he was ably assisted by the evergreen B. Garvey to secure SKOB a Round 1 win. Promising signs for the vanquished came in the form of district cricketing duo Andrew Kent and Grant Baldwin who can only be better for the run.

The darker side of Uni were very happy to walk away from Hampton with the 4 points as a determined Rovers outfit took it right up to their more fancied opponents. The second term proved to be the game breaker with seven Black's goals proving to be the difference. Best for the victors was new skipper Lucas Van Kempon, taking over from VAFA lumiere Matt Kempton would not be easy but the Flying Dutchman showed the way with a great attacking match from the backline. He was well supported down back by an impressive Robby Scarlett. Tom McCarthy was best for Hampton in a performance that would give much hope.

Previews

Old Carey's first home game of the season sees them welcome Ormond. Both teams will be keen to open

M I MILESTONES E S

100 GAMES FOR ORMOND'S JAMES MUZZELL
Ormond congratulates James Muzzell for playing 100 games for his club. James began his junior career with Bentleigh Juniors before moving to the Ormond U17's. He spent three years with the U19's from '00 to '02. In 2002, James was captain and also played his first Senior game. He was appointed Captain of the Reserves in '06, a position he holds to this day. He won the Reserves B&F in '05 as well as leading the team to successive flags in '08 and '09. James is a popular identity and all at the Club wish him every success.

their accounts but I will go with Ormond to take advantage of an injury hit Carey outfit.

In another clash of round 1 losers meet, I fancy the Bloods to get the points over the Wellers. Let's hope Harvs can play 4 quarters this time!!!!

Trinity take on ladder leaders OM and I reckon the T's might have enough artillery to make it 2-0.

Blacks welcome SKOB to the University Oval. Two patchy first round wins have me tossing a coin. SKOB just...maybe

The Rovers take the long journey west to face the Snowdogs at the Snake Pit. I fancy Bernards to get through to Round 3 undefeated, the powerful Callan Potterless forward line to prove too hot to handle.

Footnote: My considerable skills unfortunately do not stretch to being in two places at one time so any info or match reports would be appreciated. will_mccann@hotmail.com

COACHING YOUNG PLAYERS

Coaching younger players can sometimes provide massive challenges however at the same time they provide massive opportunities. As a coach, it is important to attempt to understand the modern young player and strategise to not only get the best out of them but assist in their development. So, what are the challenges and how should we respond?

Young players moving into senior football ranks tend to have a different mindset to the more "traditional" football thinking that many coaches harbour. In all aspects of their development, young players are taught to be independent thinkers and to challenge common theory they see as questionable. This can be disconcerting to coaches who do not have an entirely egalitarian position on their coaching philosophies.

Young players bring a lot to a club. Putting aside any skill and athleticism advantages that they can bring, they are the future of the club and their continued involvement, participation and commitment is vital to a club's ongoing success. Young players have strong mateship values and playing the game with their mates is, in most cases, the strongest impetus for their immediate involvement. This is not a ground breaking revelation in amateur football. A common mistake with coaches however is that this mateship principle is taken for granted and those younger players' idiosyncrasies are not taken into account.

Strategies: What can we do?

One of the critical aspects of coaching young players is trust and respect. Young players have greater control of their learning in all aspects of their life and involving them in some aspects of the decision making processes to do with training or match day should see a positive response. Also, they will expect and want a structured, organised and directed training regime, which research indicates is a far more effective learning environment for young males. Other things to consider when dealing with young players are –

- Always treat them with respect. Do not single out or degrade players in front of their peers. Their self-esteem is directly related to how their peers see them and degrading them publicly can severely affect this.
- Make sure you are consistent and fair. Continually request an assistant or mentor provide feedback to ensure there is no suggestion of bias, favouritism or preference in your coaching.
- Ensure training is well prepared, structured and provides an enjoyable environment to enhance the mateship principle.
- Listen to what they have to say and do not be dismissive. Be constructive in your evaluation of their ideas and praise new initiatives.
- Don't try and be their mate – be their mentor. Too much familiarity can lead to contempt and lack of respect.
- Ensure you are always setting a positive example, during matches, social functions and in general. Never underestimate the influence you have over these players at a very important developmental stage of their lives.

Football should be an enjoyable and rewarding experience for all participants. Respecting and understanding the needs and wants of all and in particular young players will go along way in ensuring this in a sustainable and beneficial manner.

Tipping

4/5 on the opening round is a nice start. My underestimation though of Caulfield could come back to haunt me however as they look a finals team, not a bottom half of the ladder dweller as my crystal ball predicted.

Around The Grounds

Not expected to test Beaumaris on away soil, Old Geelong kicked 7 goals to 2 in the third quarter to head into orange time with just a nine point deficit. The nails were safe for Shark fans as young full forward Scott Gower continued to shine with the boot and his bag of eight helped lead Beaumaris to a four goal victory. James Bell was electric for the Como Boys and he will cause headaches for opposing teams in the upcoming rounds.

Back to C Section proved a humbling experience for David Matthews' Bullants, as they were smashed to the tune of 92 points by Mazenod at Central Reserve. The forward artillery of Jayaweera and Bogar both helped themselves to five big ones with the visitors Bill Tourogianis the best, in a forgettable opening round match for the Bullants.

To the racetrack and slow out of the blocks, Monash played catch up football all day against Caulfield. With Price, Carboni and Meredith running rampant for the navy blue and whites; it was one way traffic for the home team as they rebounded from a horror 2008 with an opening round 61 point demolition job of Monash.

Led by the forward combination of Edwards and Reynolds who kicked ten goals between them, Oakleigh turned a one point lead at orange time into a widening 35 point victory over Parkdale. Young Derks-Revere was on fire for the Krushers while usual suspects in MacGeorge and Sullivan P, tried their hearts out for a tiring Vultures team.

Inner city rivals Ajax and MHSOB played out a thrilling match that up until orange time, looked safely within Ajax's grip. But with half forwards Taft and Taylor starting to win plenty of the pill, the Unicorns came with a late rally. Several squandered shots late left the Jackas off the hook, as they held on to win by a goal. Mark Segal was the best for Ajax along with Josh Israelsohn and Ari Lewski.

Ajax ($1.70) v Oakleigh ($2.10)

Match of the round at VAFA headquarters should be a high tempo affair with the Jackas faithful set to swell after a stirring Round 1 victory. On a deck often beset by wind, the home side has the run to carry the ball into the breeze and the skill to kick goals quickly, when backed by the "Elsternwick Doctor". Ajax for me.

Bulleen Templestowe ($3.00) v MHSOB ($1.33)

The unfurling of the 2008 D1 pennant should be a fantastic day for the Bullants out at Ted Ajani. On the field, they face an angry Unicorns unit, intent on redeeming themselves after a bitter loss to rivals Ajax. Class in the midfield with Limbrick and White will tell the tale - MHSOB by ten goals.

Old Geelong ($3.50) v Mazenod ($1.22)

Another D1 promotion team for Mazenod and after last week's demolition of the Bullants, they might have just penciled in the four points. However, I think the Como Boys have the talent to test any team in C Section as seen last week. I'd take Old Geelong at the line but head to head, I have to stick with the Noddors.

Monash Blues ($3.00) v Beaumaris ($1.33)

No breather for the Sky Blues who will be better for the run last week but a rampaging Sharks outfit is hardly the ideal candidate for some confidence building. It looks like it will be feeding time at Frearson, Beaumaris in a canter.

Parkdale Vultures ($2.00) v Caulfield Grammarians ($1.72)

Back down the Nepean Highway, the Vultures need to turn around an average Round 1 showing but would prefer something a little less taxing than the polish of Caulfield Grammarians. With an expected track rating of Good-3, the Fields will be too slick on top of the ground for Parkdale.

Bet of the Week: Looks to be a week for the favourites, let's tuck into some of the $1.72 on offer about the Fields to knock off the Vultures at Gerry Green.

Old Haileybury v Old Trinity

by Peter Williamson

ROUND ONE REVIEW

2008 D1 semi-finalists North Old Boys/St. Patrick's College and Old Mentonians met at Alec Gillon Oval, and it was the COBs who triumphed by 41 points. It was a closely fought contest for the first three quarters, and with two late goals in the third term, the Panthers had got the margin down to less than a goal. However, the home side exploded with 10 goals to four in the final stanza to record an important first up win.

In the eastern suburbs derby at Bennettswood Sports Ground, visitors Aquinas OC emerged victorious of St Leos Emmaus by 28 points. Both teams in general were quite evenly matched, with plenty of youngsters balanced out by more sturdy types in the midfield. In turn, the first half was also quite close, although the likes of Joel Edis, skipper John Jess and Brendan Sharpe allowed the visitors to assert their superiority in the second half.

The first of the all-district club contests took place at Soldiers Reserves, with Werribee continuing their premiership form to steamroll South Melbourne Districts by a colossal 114 points. The home side was too quick for their bigger opponents, with the defence led by Nathan Addamo particularly impressive. Veterans Steve Aquilina and Elliott Costello were better players for the visitors.

Fitzroy claimed the 'Latte Cup' with a tidy 51 point win over Prahran at Brunswick Street. Isaac Hughson was the standout with 7 majors for the Royboys. The home side were out of the blocks quickly and apart from the second quarter, never appeared to be seriously challenged.

Finally, Rupertswood's journey to Donvale reaped maximum reward with a handsome 49 point victory over Whitefriars. Leigh Brennan takes an early lead on the sharpshooters table with an impressive 10 goals.

ROUND TWO PREVIEW

Aquinas OC take on South Melbourne Districts at Ringwood in a battle of The Bloods. Dunno if Districts' result is an aberration or the shape of things to come, and while Aquinas would be chuffed to start the season with a win, enthusiasm may have been tempered somewhat as it was over a newly promoted team. Nonetheless, it will be interesting to see how the Aquinas youngsters back up. I'll take Aquinas today.

Werribee make the epic trek to Keysborough for their match against Old Mentonians, who despite their first up loss must, at least at this early stage, still be seen as a yardstick for this section. The Tigers, buoyant after their huge win last week, will be keen to see how they measure up to a team seen as one of the 'big boys'. I think they'll be genuinely competitive, but I'm not prepared to bet against the Panthers at home so early in the season. For the home side, it's a question of who'll assume the mantle of key goalkicker. They have a few likely candidates, but need a couple to step forward and be willing to take on this role. An intriguing contest nonetheless, but I like the Panthers on this occasion.

In Sunbury, Rupertswood host Fitzroy in a game between two of the more keenly observed teams at this level. Rupo have, save for last year, been nigh on unbeatable in the confines of Salesian College, and it would not surprise to see them finish the season with an unblemished home record. Fitzroy, if last year's form is anything to go by, should be sound in defence, but will have a tough task containing the Rupo attack, which is certainly not the one-man band last week's result may suggest. At home, it's got to be Rupo.

Toorak Park is the venue for the clash of the two Two Blues - Prahran and Emmaus St. Leos. Mrs. Baranello's boys, Paul and Nathan, were amongst the better players for the Animals last week, and the visitors will look forward to more of that form. Despite the chimes of doom that seem to clang at the mention of Prahran's name, they still have some quality players, such as Leigh Northway, Michael Bremner and Will Walford, which could be enough to get them over the line. At home, I'll play the squib card and take Prahran today.

TODAY'S D1 MATCHES

PRAHRAN	v	EMMAUS ST LEOS
RUPERTSWOOD	v	FITZROY
WHITEFRIARS	v	NOBSP
OLD MENTONIANS	v	WERRIBEE
AQUINAS	v	STH MELB DIST

Whitefriars take on NOB/SPC at Donvale. The Cobbers impressed last week against a team seen as a fellow contender, while the Friars will be extremely disappointed if they start 0-2, from two home games no less. Chris Hosking and Scott Sleep are two of the more experienced defenders going around, and still have a lot to offer, while the likes of Kyle Adams, Tim Brady and Simon Harwood looked good filling the shoes of Michael Barker. I'll pick the COBs for this one.

CORRESPONDENCE

In order to meet publishing deadlines, please submit your match summaries by Monday 5pm via email to theqwill@hotmail.com (milestones should be via jess@vafa.com.au). It would be great to get a response from every club, each week, as I am interested in giving each club equal time.

Have a great VAFA weekend,
"The Qwill"

M I MILESTONES NEWS

NOBSPC Congratulations go to boom young NOBSPC forward Chris 'Noodles' Ford who played his 50th game for the club last week. In his 4th season with club, which included two seasons as leading goalkicker in the U19's, Chris is the first St Pat's boy since the merger to reach 50 games.

OLD MENTONIANS congratulate Brad Norton on playing his 50th game this week. Brad is a courageous and inspirational player who has been elevated to the position of Senior Captain this year. Congratulations Norts on the first milestone in what we hope is a long career at the Panthers.

UMPIRES CORNER

by Steve McCarthy & Leah Gallagher

What a start!

What a great start to the season last week. In typical autumn weather without a breath of wind, football was the big winner. As is normal for the first round compared to practice matches, the intensity is there for four quarters and leg cramps start to surface somewhere between time-on and the final siren. Congrats to all new umpires last week on their first Vafa game and hope it's the start of many more to come.

Balltearer's Swansong

A trip to the physio over summer has caused David (Balltearer) D'Altera to hang up the boots after 450 Vafa games as a field umpire. The knee was showing bad signs after 32 years of officiating in the middle. His only regret is that he can't compete anymore with the likes of Pat (Bouncer) Maebus, (Rotten) Ronnie Martyn, Mick (Grinner) Gilday and Mick (The Banker) Forde. Tearer joined us from the VFA in 1985 (with his great mate, the unforgettable Ron Smith) after starting his career with the Northern Metro Juniors nine years earlier. During his twenty-three years at the Vafa, he has combined this with stints at the Yarra Valley Juniors, Essendon District U18s, Superules and Masterules. During his time with us he rates Neville Nash as the best advisor because he made you think about how you umpired. He says that the two-umpire system was the best thing since sliced bread and kept him in the field longer than expected. He now hopes to get to 500 games as a goal umpire. Tearer would like to thank all umpires that ran with him over his long journey, and all Vafa clubs for their hospitality and putting on a good show for him each week.

Field of Dreams

Like every footballer, umpires do dream of one day umpiring a game and bouncing on the "G". For one umpire dreams came true, Mark Gibson umpired a FIDA game at half time of the Collingwood v Geelong match and had the opportunity to run on the hallowed turf. Being a FIDA game and keeping with the no bouncing in the centre rule, Gibbo couldn't contain himself and had to bounce, not once, not twice but quite a few times just to leave the imprint. If that's not a memory enough for him, how about getting the goal umpire to take some happy snaps of him in action at the "G". Gibbo, Peter Fisher (from Mazenod) is still looking for payment as your photographer.

Centerfold??

Could page 4 of the Herald-Sun sport section in last Sunday's paper be the closest thing that Joe "Buff-Boy" Hartwig gets to being a centerfold? Joey, who prides himself on looking good with fine-tuning his pecs, guns and hair not to mention letting all umpires know how good his body is, fell short in this photo by the "stunned mullet" look on his face. Also Joey, good to see you in proper position or were you in awe of the great man Robert Harvey??

AGM

A reminder to all umpires that the first Annual General Meeting of the new VafaUA executive is on Thursday 30th April after training.

D2 SECTION

by Caillin O'Shannessy

Round one season 2009 did not fail to disappoint, with relatively few surprises but good football and a couple of blockbusters nevertheless. If week one is a sign of how this season will play out, spectators will be rubbing their hands together with glee. Not so Old Ivanhoe, who had a disaster start to the season going down by ten goals to a red hot Paradians outfit keen to make its stamp upon the competition. The Hoes were never in it as Old Paradians dominated the game, winning the clearances around the ground and constantly attacking, with Carl Sage kicking a bag up forward. This will be a massive disappointment for Old Ivanhoe, who seemed to have gone backwards from the good football they were playing at the end of last year. It doesn't get any easier for Ivanhoe, taking on a red hot Yarra Valley side next week.

Despite not coming away the victors on Saturday, Yarra Valley will take a lot of positives from its thriller against Banyule. After a blistering third quarter Yarra pushed many people's flag favourites Banyule to the very end, falling short by the smallest of margins. In a hard fought contest that came down to the wire, both sides will rue missed opportunities in front of goal, but will be pleased with the all round effort. With Richard Young and Tom Shepherd in good form early, the bears look set for an exciting season ahead, taking on Old Westbourne next week. For Yarra Valley, Liam Grimwade was good all day, and they will be looking forward to a good chance to register their first win for the season next week.

Eltham have kicked off the new season with a confidence boosting win down at the Turtle Dome on Saturday. Inaccurate kicking from Glen Eira in the third quarter allowed Eltham to open up a deficit which the Saints were unable to close, resulting in a three goal victory to the home side. Glenn Turner kicked five goals for Eltham in excellent conditions, and was fed by the impressive Hayden Miles, Hayden Dillon and Andrew Schadendorff. For Glen Eira Bradley Clements was dashing in defence all day, while Said Elmi added a spark around the ground with some fierce tackling and lightning speed. Congratulations to Scott Hall on playing his 50th game for the Sainters. A great effort considering the injuries he has carried over the years.

Williamstown made it their day down at Fearon Reserve on Saturday, drawing a large crowd to witness the unfurling of the 2008 flag, and a solid opening game from the home team. To Therry Penola's credit, they worked hard all day, and while it looked at times as though Williamstown would pull away, the combination side refused to go away. Each time the game threatened to become a blowout, Therry Penola gritted their teeth and willed themselves back into the game. Corey Bannister continued his goal kicking ways, once again proving to be a force up forward. However it wasn't enough to stop Williamstown as they appeared unaffected from mad Monday 2008. The very young Willie side was well aided by the dukes of Ben Gray, who controlled marking contests all day. Will Cooper also had a good start to the season. Glen Eira should be another winnable game for Williamstown as long as they don't get ahead of themselves. Therry Penola will be desperate to knock off Eltham at home to get an early win on the board.

Old Westbourne have had a horror start to the season, as Peninsula had all but sowed up their round one clash at quarter time. With eleven individual goal kickers, Peninsula, led by Thomas Rees, demolished Westbourne in an embarrassing encounter for the warriors.

... Retrospective

by Geoff Reilley

5 YEARS AGO - 2004

In C Section, after a slow start to the season in round 1, Caulfield Grammarians bounced back strongly against Therry and led from the opening bounce until the final siren. The Therry boys simply could not put it together and failed to follow up on their first round win. Caulfield's tackling was ferocious and had a big effect on the final result (13.16 to 8.7). Best players – Bruhn (3), Will, Carboni, Green, Fallu, Widjaja (Caulfield) and Henderson, Faroldi, Edwards, D Goodwin, Russell, Fenton (Therry). Max Witman and Mick Brown were the "men in white".

In D1 Section, scribe Barry Hickey, was prepared to state that Ormond and University Blacks already looked Grand Final contenders. Barry admitted that it was early to be making such predictions and he took the opportunity to also throw Banyule into the mix. In the Salesian versus Ormond match Barry highlighted that Salesian defender Anthony Grace actually played on Ormond forward Anthony Grace. It seemed the Mond's version had by far the better day with 6 goals in his team's 16.12 to 9.8 victory, never easy to win at the tight Chadstone ground. Best players – L Russell, Young, Grace, Keleher, Martinov, Cove (Ormond) and Nannes, Crose, Bonnici, S Logan, S Sutherland, M Forer (Salesian).

Eddie Mitchell played his 150th game for St Leos Emmaus and the 'gutsy' left footer had worked very hard on his game to become a valuable team member for his club.

The Coates Hire MVP's for round 2 were – A Section, Nick Daffy (Old Melburnians), B Section, Ben Garvey (SKOBS), C Section, Andrew Will (Caulfield Grammarians), D1 Section, Chris Sandford (Uni Blacks), D2 Section, Shane Sampson (Ivanhoe Assumption), D3 Section, Matthew Miller (Werribee) and D4 Section, Rob Pasinati (Bulleen Cobras).

In C Section St Leos Emmaus were kicking themselves for allowing Old Mentonians to virtually steal the game. St Leos were 3 goals up at the first break, held a solitary point advantage at half time, fought their way to a 2 goal lead at three quarter time only to finish 1 point in arrears when the bell was rung. It was a good start for Mentonians with two wins and fourth spot and the prospects of a successful season ahead. Best players – B Kuramoto, Flaski, Mullen, Carter, Stephen, Twentymen (Mentonians) and McKenzie, Dinicolantonio, T McCann, Buckle, Vaughan (5), Burgess (St Leos).

Aquinas and Bulleen Templestowe turned on a 'cracker' in D Section, a game that went down to the wire. Very even first term, 5 points up by Aquinas at the main break, same difference at 'orange time' and then they went goal for goal in the final before Bulleen Temp got their noses in front to win 17.16 to 16.20. Best players – George, D Matthews (6), Hare, Prior, Tulloch, Smith (BT) and Edwards, De Navi, Thomas (6), Wooden, Jones, Hyland (Aquinas).

Therry Penola (44 points) had grabbed the early lead in the "Blades Club Championship" from Caulfield Grammarians, Collegians, Old Melburnians, Old Mentonians, Old Xaverians and Werribee, all on 39 points.

Peter Grant and Doug Dick were sharing the scribe duties in B Section and described Old Trinity's good win over Monash Blues as a tight game. At one stage in the final quarter, Monash led by 9 points but Trinity's running game was the difference as they took the points in the end with a 7 goal term. Best players – Forbes, Norman, Rogers (3), Wallace, Allibon, Parkes (OT) and Baring, Hildebrand (4), Steaton, Hyett, Sturgess, Traindos (Monash).

In C Section, Caulfield Grammarians were far too strong for Hampton Rovers, 22.18 to 11.10. Caulfield never looked like losing the game and best players were T Royals, Brohier, Morrissey, Horton, Boston, Lowe (Caulfield). Cooney's 8 goals did not land him in Caulfield's best! Hampton named Salmon, Winkler (5), Pat, McKellar, Coutts.

Milestones abounded – Steven McCooke and Paul Forsyth both 150 games for Ormond. Steven was a triple premiership player and senior best and fairest (twice) for the Monds having overcome a knee reconstruction. In the preceding cricket season, Steven had also been a member of Melbourne's District 1st Eleven Premiership. Paul's record at Ormond was remarkable; no less than 7 premierships with five in the last five seasons.

Craig Fox recorded his 200th for North Brunswick having risen through the ranks and now an integral part of the senior team. With many more games ahead everyone at North Brunswick were anticipating a long and successful career for Craig.

Round two experienced, unusually, three scores in excess of 240 points. In Junior Section 3, Bulleen Templestowe kicked a massive 40 goals 23 behinds to Old Ivanhoe's 4.7. Best for the winners were Lawler (10), Nash, Farley, Weatherall (6), Sexton (4), David.

The closest game in A Section was between Ormond and Old Scotch, both teams wanting to record their first win. With little in it in the first half, Ormond forged ahead with a telling third quarter and a 6 goal plus advantage by the final break. The Scotchies suddenly found their legs and with strong run through the midfield and good targets up forward, clawed their way back into the game only to fall three points short at the final bell, 14.16 to 14.13. Best players – Fisher, McCooke, Hamley, Hardham, Pearce (3), Chisholm (Ormond) and Alexander, Bubb, Duke, Purnell, Tallent, Bedford (Old Scotch).

In B Section, Marcellin Old Collegians and Caulfield Grammarians became the only undefeated teams as they both comprehensively defeated their opposition, Parkside and Old Xaverians respectively. Parkside pushed Marcellin until just before half time when the Eagles kicked a couple of quick majors to take a 3 and a half goal lead. Parkside fell away in the second half as Marcellin's running players took control to run out winners 21.27 to 10.8. Best players – Denning (4), Holland, Toomey, Hynes, Dillon, Cooper (Marcellin) and Romari, B Clarke, Fitzgerald, Arnell, Howell, Harbour (Parkside).

In B Section De La Salle were not totally satisfied with their kicking for goal (13.17) but their opponents, Kew, were more disenchanted as they also accumulated 17 behinds but only had 3 goals to go with it! Kew had most of the play in the first quarter with 3.5 to 1.2 but immediately following the break, the D's got into gear and stormed away. Kew did not kick another goal after the first term! This win placed De La on top of the ladder and after a first round win, Kew were very disappointed with the result in this game. Best players Lynch (4), Halassa (3), Janson, Glover, Heffernon, B Lyons (De La Salle) and King, Leavold, Paterson, Slimmon, Findlay, Mullin (Kew).

In C Section, Alphington were too strong for Tooronga Malvern and after holding the combine scoreless in the first term, Alphington were comfortable winners 18.10 to 10.11. Best players – Scott, McKay, Williams, McNamara (5), Wayman (4), K Harris (Alphington) and Evans, W Smith, Anderson, Carey, I Downs, Bean (Kew).

In perfect weather and in a strange coincidence, the four top sections revealed a similar pattern after the completion of round 2 – three teams undefeated, four had won one game each and three had yet to open their accounts! The bye and an odd number of teams had rules out the possibility of a similar comparison in the other two sections.

It was a thrilling game in B Section when Kew held off a fast finishing Commonwealth Bank who had leveled the scores late in the final term. With less than a minute to go, the brilliant half forward, Ian Mort, goaled for Kew to take back the lead and immediately followed up with another to finish 13.10 to 11.16. Best players – Blay, James, Tobias, Traplin, Robertson, Telford (Kew) and Empey, Neil, Spargo, R G Mulligan, Kerby, Lethlean (Commonwealth Bank).

In C Section, a brilliant second term by Glenhuntly enabled them to take the points over Uni High School Old Boys. It was a fantastic last quarter display by both teams but in Glenhuntly's favour, the final score stood at 16.9 to 14.8. Best players – Contencin, Hancy (4), Moss, L Shannon, N Smith, Walker (Glenhuntly) and Penna, Foster, Harry (4), Harmer, Leigh, Brown (UHSOB).

by Stephen Clarke

There was much hope and optimism coming in to round 1 for all clubs in the Amateurs. I then thought to browse through a few results and see if all went to plan. Alas there were some serious blowouts across grades and ages, such as Under 19's North Division where in four games the average winning margin was some 23 goals!

So how did D3 fair, any major casualties at this incredibly early stage?

I ventured down to Elsternwick to watch Powerhouse and the locals locked in an arm wrestle almost the whole day. The Piranhas were missing key men in Burnside and Edwards and knew on the small ground their stocks were seriously depleted. The likes of Justin Hunter and Dave Smith would have enjoyed the pre game knowing this and thinking one thing – goal fest. But the game started very honestly from both sides and a little bit of Scott Grace magic early was a highlight. I thought Elsternwick wasted some chances though and retracted in the second quarter with their hard work allowing Powerhouse back into the game. The third term Hunter was finishing some great work from Nathan Hodskiss but the visitors hung in and were very well served by Al Foster who worked tirelessly all day. A five goal effort at the end for the 'House saw them home by five points in a great team effort. Matty Taylor was great up forward whilst the 'Wicks lament what could have been. Their round two clash now vital.

Those at Rathmines Road must have been somewhat surprised by the start, middle and end to the match when the Gryphon's dropped by to start the season and went bang! They were simply dominant all day and ran out seventy point victors. It was a huge day for them with club stalwart Chris Leeton lining up for gamed 200 and perhaps this was the impetus they needed. But as the game wore on their skill level got better and Hawthorn couldn't contain their scoring ability. Debut coach Mark Murray felt his side simply show up on the day and the clubs attack on the footy was simply not acceptable. James Keeghan was honest as always for the home side along with big Dan Hilliet and Tristan Russell for the Gryphons. That is a fast start for Monash though and they get the luxury of taking their form back home. Coach Freddie Naumoff would be ecstatic with the four quarter effort. Hawthorn must regroup extremely quickly but have the ability to do so.

I think the 'hype' side in our section has been Bentleigh. Who they drafted, who they lost, a lot of rumour has been circulating. That was all put to bed in the first game against St Johns when the time came to see what they really can do. Well, it was mission accomplished with a ten goal win but both sides here can walk away with positives. St Johns really hung on well in the first half and it was some late goals to the home side that saw them get that comfortable break and maintain their ascendancy. The visitors have some very good players in Ben Pickering and Nathan Chalk and they did well. But the home side have multiple avenues to goal and this will be there big advantage for the season. Forrest and Fridman finished off with some great goals on the day.

Ferndale Park was home to an absolute goal fest between St Marys Salesian and Uni High. There is no question hopes were high for the visiting side here yet they looked gone early in the third term with the lead getting out to 37 points. Enter Rhys Kirk who starting kicking some great goals after the midfield got right on top and they were able to power home to a twelve point win. Young Charlie Ampt had a very good day for the home side who were missing a few key players and although the result may be viewed as a negative there were positive signs. Uni High have worked hard all summer and have the depth down back to trouble sides. They only conceded two goals in a half and Matt Lacey has continued his great form from the end of 2008 to have a major influence. Shane Cracknell was super here also.

West Brunswick hosted the Grand Fianl replay of 2004 against St Francis Xavier. The X Men I don't think actually beat the Magpies in 2008 so here was a chance at showing them they were here in Section D3 to do more than just make up numbers. However the first quarter belonged solely to the black and white army who booted seven majors. But good teams don't panic and know that games are never over this early. Slowly the visitors started winning almost all the stoppages and their field kicking allowed them to move the ball with purpose. The last quarter saw them score six goals and ten behinds in a dominant display. Russo and Pabst starred after half time for the visitors who take much away from this road trip. Bainbridge was honest as always for the Magpies.

Tips –

Only two correct last week seems abysmal but a few games were close so perhaps not a shocking effort.

I think round two is much harder again ! Bentleigh travel to Uni High and this should be close on paper. The away side will get the vote though by four goals. Powerhouse journey to St Francis Xavier looking for a great road start. I will go with the Piranhas by 10 points. Monash host St Mary's and surely must be looking to back up their great start. The Gryphons to win by 28. Hawthorn's season does not get easier with a trip to St Johns. The home side is a great chance here and can win by 15 points. Finally our 'Anzac Day' clash sees Elsternwick host Brunswick in a pretty important game for coach Grace and his men. Home side by 19 points.

CLUB WAREHOUSE RISING STAR R1 WINNER GUS LAPIN (OLD MELBURNIANS)

Gus debuted for the Old Melburnians seniors last Saturday against Old Camberwell. He lined up on a half-forward flank and impressed all with his strength at the contest and his good work around goals.

Vice-captain in last year's Melbourne Grammar APS premiership team, Gus is looking to cement his place in the ones and would love to wear the Big V if selected.

Gus' father Steve is the former club doctor at OMs and has returned to the club as U19 team manager.

All at the VAFA congratulate Gus on his outstanding start to 2009 and wish him every success with his future footballing endeavours.

Coach of the Month

Every month during the 2009 seasons, one coach from the Senior sections and one from the U19/U18 sections will be selected as the Coates Hire Coach of the Month. These awards recognise the achievements of coaches throughout the ranks and not always the coaches in charge of teams at the pointy end of the ladders. Clubs are welcome to nominate coaches for these awards and nomination can be sent through to Jeremy Bourke (jeremy@vafa.com.au). All coaches selected will be invited to the VAFA's Coach of the Year function and potentially selection as a finalist/Winner in the Victorian Coach of the Year Awards announced in November.

AFCA/VAFA would like to again acknowledge and thank Coates Hire for their continual support of the Coaches Association and their awards.

Fantastic conditions greeted players in a fascinating round 1 on Saturday. Personally I regretted a decision to shave my head for the added on-field intimidation effect, as I sustained considerable scalp burn, and wasn't required to play; a loss all-round. I did however manage to tip six winners, which may be a first for me-maybe 'Ruck Machine' or 'Ozza' could enlighten me on this.

Whilst results were as expected, at least by me, final margins were in most cases close, and several games were decided very late in the match. Certainly a couple of the losing sides, whilst disappointed, would have taken heart from some of Saturday's efforts. North Brunswick, who, like last year, has a very young list, would have been very happy with their reserves effort, and it would not surprise me if several players were promoted over coming weeks.

On the vast expanses of the Uni oval Latrobe and Kew fought out a titanic battle, fitting of match of the round status. Club stalwart Dean Sheldrick was dangerous for the Trobers, whilst David McMaster was pivotal to their half time lead. In the third Kew took control with seven goals, led by reigning goal kicking medallist Craig Horne, and maybe only the absence of (Wesley) Death stopped them nailing the final nail in the uni coffin. In the final quarter Latrobe rallied, and perhaps home ground advantage enabled them to sneak home by two points (even if the scoreboard showed a Bears win).

Albert Park and Richmond Central welcomed season 2009 with, I think, D4's first night game. For three and a half quarters the game ebbed and flowed with strong tackling from both sides. First the Falcons gained ascendancy then the Snakes fought back with Trent Woodberry patrolling the backline. In the final fifteen minutes Albert Park consolidated through Justin Kane, and big red Olly Winchester, and recorded a tight win. Nathan Nuske belied the departure of Whiting with a fantastic seven goal performance, however I feel the ability of Albert Park to find multiple avenues to goal may have been the deciding factor with Brendan Murnane and Sean Allan both prominent.

Eley Park jumped out of the blocks quickly against North Brunswick, and ultimately this proved the difference as the home team were unable to extend their lead for the remainder of the match. Old heads Mick Sorletto and Robbie Santacroce were important for the young North contingent, while the ever reliable Viola brothers led the Sharks to an important home victory. Box Hill North was competitive against an inaccurate Rams unit, particularly with another of the league's sharp shooters, Dan Penny, having a day out with eight goals. The reported absence of Michael Rhodes for Mt Lilydale proved to be bogus as the influential ruck/onballer was excellent all day. Daniel Cerra's pace unsettled the Demons all day, and the leg speed of the Rams was definitely the difference between the two sides.

Manningham Cobras led South Mornington for most of the first half with Matthew Mann prominent for the Cobras. Just before half time the home side seized the lead, and whilst Manningham did not give up, South gradually drew away in the second half. The Cobras would have been happy with the form of Tim Fradkin up forward, however local recruit Rhys McConville-Brain, and the consistent Shane Mottram helped South Mornington to a reasonably comfortable victory.

Swinburne Uni quickly showed the competition that they will be a force this season with a big victory over Chadstone. The Synners were certainly not disgraced and showed some improvement from last year, with several key players still to return, however the likes of Attila Yaman (pictured above), who kicked eight and took a fantastic one hander, and Ryan Hurst, were too strong up forward. Kieran Conrau showed some good form for Chadstone, whilst Daniel Hassaballa was best on ground for the Razorbacks (which has to be my favourite nickname in Amateur football; just not sure about the jumpers though).

ROUND 2 TIPS

Match of the Round

Whilst the Razorbacks won comfortably many would have been more impressed with Richmond's efforts against the highly fancied Falcons. The new midfield brigade down at KB reserve would have the local crowd very excited about Richmond's prospect for the season. Swinburne, surprisingly, had been written off by many before the season started, based loosely on pre-season form. This week will see them change a few more minds with a hard fought 12 point win.

Box Hill North welcomes Albert Park in their tough start to the season. Unfortunately I cannot see a change in fortunes except if Cam Liston and Dave Martini can complement Penny up forward; Nathan Dallas to lead the Falcons to a 25 pt win.

Chadstone will add a few players to the team from last week and will challenge South Mornington at home, however I feel that the beach boys will travel far better this year away from home.

South Mornington by 11 pts.

Eley Park and Manningham had close tussles last season, and I cannot see this one being any different. The Cobras at home by 2pts.

In another contender for match of the round Latrobe Uni again will enjoy the expanses of the uni oval as they defeat fellow finals contender Mt Lilydale. The Rams do have good leg speed and may surprise however the Trobers will get up by 3 points in another nail biter.

Kew will probably be a little too polished at this stage for North Brunswick and will not drop this one at home. Kew by 35pts.

RESERVES WINNERS

SW, AP, Chad, Mann, MTL and NB.

I understand that this was only the first round; however it was disappointing that only four teams submitted reports. To help me write more accurate articles please send in match reports. I welcome feedback form not only coaches or committee, but also players and supporters.

Under 18s

by Joe Morsello

Joeys Jargon

Favourable weather conditions greeted our youngest competitors as they set out to make history and do battle for the inaugural season of Under 18 Footy. Nerves must've been running high from the young gents and from what I hear some coaches also. From all reports the standard of footy played was classier than Takeover Target's performance in the TJ Smith, with some blow-out results not reflecting the true spirit that matches were played in. Let's see how the round fared.....

Last Week

Oakleigh as expected were too strong for SMS. The bigger bodied Krushers had all the answers saluting by a comfortable 120 points and look like they will be a force to be reckoned with in 09. Tsoucalas had a dose of leather poisoning winning plenty of the prune and kicking 4 large ones for the Oaks, around good performances from Pappon and Costigan. For the saints "Scotty" West and "The Crane" tried hard.

In the battle of the animals the snow dogs were more confused than a woodpecker in a concrete forest in the wide open spaces of Sportscover Arena, going down to an impressive tiger's side by 116 points. With the depth of tigers outfit they are in my opinion sure to be a top two finisher in 09. Barnhoorn put up 5 sausage rolls with Shippies and Cortazzo also impressing.

In a tight battle at Therry, UHS-VU notched their first win in the competition with a 4 goal to 1 last quarter to eventually get up by 2 majors. Potroz was good for the visitors as was the "The Bega" Cheeseman. For Therry the Ratcliffe triplets tried hard all day.

The Bullants opened their VAFA account with a strong second half to overpower Old Camberwell by 40 points. On the open spaces of Gordon Bernard the Bullants had all the answers with Simcoe and Le winning plenty of footy. For Camberwell it was Brown who was a shining light with 4 coffee scrolls.

This Week:

UHS – VU v Oakleigh

Oakleigh were strong last week, expect them to be too good here. Oakleigh by 10 goals.

Northern Bullants v St Bernards: St Bernard's were beaten by a strong side last week who I expect to finish top two. The Bullants deserve to be favourites but I feel this will be closer than a lot of people think. Bullants by 10 points.

St Marys / Salesian v Therry Penola: Should be a tight tussle here, SMS are on the back foot early after a demoralizing first round assignment, I'll take U19 south scribe Justin Waldron's advice and toss a coin. Therry by 3 goals.

St Bedes / Mentone Tigers v Old Camberwell: Tigers at home will be much too strong, expecting a blow-out, Tigers by 80+, bet of the week no question.

Any match reports, information, banter related to my column and correspondence will be most appreciated (unless you're abusing me which I will most likely not appreciate). Please email to joe@vafa.com.au

U19 PREMIER ROUND 1 REVIEW

And suddenly it was as if it had never been away, as I drove north toward Albert Park to make my Club 18 debut last Saturday I saw the familiar sights that remind us that we are only 18 rounds from September. The stalwarts at McKinnon reserve were out marking the lines and putting up goal post padding for a big day at the Badlands, I saw a Bentleigh FC polo shirt in the supermarket at Elsternwick and remembered times spent kicking big scores just off Centre Rd and was rapt that ammo footy was back.

The SBMT boys were happy it was back too. Out came last year's flag; in came Uni Blacks and bingo, bango, wango The Tigers find themselves with 4 points and a healthy dose of confidence. Blacks never really got their mojo going in Mentone, while Harkness, Fotia and Gale played well St Bedes Mentone had the answers with Meehan unstoppable and Faulkner (5 goals) and Zagami solid contributors as SBMT got the jump and held a comfortable lead all day to win by 8 goals. While Blacks headed bayside it was the bayside boys of Beaumaris who headed up to face Uni Blues and started sluggishly as Blues got the jump kicking goals 1 & 2 of the contest. Finally awoken to the tempo of Premier footy The Sharks kicked the next 5 before The Blues managed to get themselves back into the game and with Butler, McClure and Bradley setting up many forays forward by halftime there was only a point in it. Beauy got a hussle on in third quarter only to see Uni fight back again late in the game then steady and kick the sealer late in the final term. Better players for the Sharks were Millar, Abbott and Bliesner amongst a host of goal scorers in Blue and Yellow.

Also in Blue and Yellow, Rupo didn't disappoint the regulars on the hill in Sunbury handing Marcellin a smacking in their round 1 encounter. 45 scoring shots to 10 tells a tale of woe for The Eagles and while brave efforts came from Kemp, Viney and Manakis they could not stop Jess Rush and Brendon Grech having a feast in front of goal with 15 majors between them. Quality supply came from the hands and feet of Woodard and Caddaye as Rupo let all and sundry know they are not in the top flight just to make up numbers.

Determined to show they are not in the top divvy by fluke Old Trinity jumped out of the blocks to catch Old Scotch snoozing in the first stanza of their match at Bulleen kicking 4 goals to 2 early. One could be forgiven in thinking there was a stiff breeze favouring one end as The Cardinals then turned the tables slamming in 6 to OT's 2 in the second and then when the boys in green and gold helped themselves to 7 in the third it was game on. However Old Scotch's superior fitness on the large back oval at Bulleen Rd was telling as the Cards ran riot in the last to win comfortably in the end. Better players for Trinity were Luke Piccolo and Simon Murphy with David Cowley (6 goals) impressive in front of goal. For Old Scotch Richard Wilkinson (6 goals) and Jack Furey (5 goals) were deadly in front of the big sticks while down back Mursell kept it tight and was rarely beaten all day. In what turned out to be match of the day Old Xav's pulled out a huge confidence booster downing the highly rated De La Salle at home finally breaking the shackles in the final stanza. For three quarters it was an arm wrestle royale, the lead swapping at the breaks until with the score 9-8 apiece Xav's hit the lead early in the last and were then never headed. Better players for the Claret and Stout were Daniel Noonan (8 goals) in a best on performance ably supported by Moylan and Buckley. For De La Salle, Muller, Clinch and Griffin were among the better players.

Beaumaris vs Old Trinity: In the battle of last years Division 1 Premiers I'll have to take The Sharks. Beauy have had a huge pre-season and will run the underdone OT's off their legs on the new surface at Banksia reserve. If The T's forwards fire however expect a tight contest. Sharks at Shark Park by 4 goals.

St Bedes Mentone Tigers vs Uni Blues: Punters may be excused for thinking its groundhog day as the second Blue and Black Uni jumper hits Brindisi St in as many weeks and I'll tip a very similar result in favour of The Tigers. Uni Blues will have their hands full trying to contain Meehan, Ryan and co and are staring down the barrel at an 8 goal spanking this week.

Uni Blacks vs Old Scotch: Paul Dodd's youngsters are up and about and will head to Crawford Oval this week full of confidence. Uni Blacks however won't be brushed aside easily and will take it right up to the Cards on home turf. In what will be a great game Blacks to open their 09 account by a kick.

Marcellin vs De La Salle: The Eagles will appreciate being at home this week and you would expect a better showing from this proud club after last week's disaster. Being back in Bulleen will offer only temporary comfort as De La Salle, who are rarely beaten take out their frustrations on Oval 2 and hand Marcellin loss number 2. De La by 6 goals wins in round 1 and will be keen to consolidate their early season advantage in this blockbuster. Dino has a deep pool of talent this year and should have the armory needed to win this one. Black and Red by 3 goals.

SOUTH 1 - REVIEW

A bad start on my account after a woeful 2 out of 5 tips correct after Round 1. Toss of the coin technique didn't pull through this week as I chose Haileybury (heads) to get up and well, didn't I get that one wrong as the Melburnians produced a mauling out at McKinnon Reserve. Big bad L. Bennett felt like putting on a clinic by kicking 11 goals and being named B.O.G. If that wasn't a big enough belting then Mazenod can probably help you with their 180 point smashing provided by The Caulfield Grammar lads. With Johnston, Parsons and Big Bustling Benny McLoughlin all jaggig bags of 4 it was near impossible to stop the fields in Round 1.

De La Salle! Wow what a club. Terrific win in Round 1 after coming from South 2 defeating Old Brighton by 4 goals. Gutsy start by the De la lads who were led by the likes of M. Todd whacking 8 snags between the two big sticks and Kamelopoulos winning plenty of the prune.

Ormond as expected did the job comfortably over Collegians with Lee and McCarthy both having dominant performances on the day.

And yes you guessed it, another pumping and another bad bad tip. St Kevins opened their account with a massive 139 point bashing. With 6 goals from P.Karageorgiou and a B.O.G to Daniel Code the Oaks just were not up to the hefty task of a rampaging St Kevins.

SOUTH 1 - PREVIEW

Old Brighton vs. Oakleigh: Both looking for their first win. Gut says Old Brighton at home.

Ormond vs. De La Salle: Ormond to be far too strong. 50+ Caulfield vs. Collegians: to continue their Round 1 demolition with another 100+ win.

Old Melburnians vs. Mazenod: Melburnians to get up easily 70+

St Kevins vs. Old Haileybury: St Kevins 100+

SOUTH 2 - REVIEW:

3 out of 5 right this week as we are under way in season 2009. The Rovers as I tipped did the job on the Vultures winning by 27 points. M. Innes jagged 4 and Jack Baxter is still recovering from some serious foot bruising.

Monash Blues got up in a thriller down at the Uni. With less than 5 minutes to go the Ashes came from behind to snatch a valuable early win over Bentleigh. M. McCart was supposedly just omitted from Hospital after suffering a dose of leather poisoning, and was well helped by T.Powell as the pair lifted when the game was in the balance.

Ajax knocked the lads from Beauy off the face of the earth after a 130+ point demolition at Gary Smorges board oval. With Jake Lew nailing 9 of the very best and named best on ground. Old Mentonians were not far behind the Jackers as they destroyed Melbourne High by 114 points. M. Bardoi ran a muck and with J. Lumsden having a huge day out (he booted 8) the Melburnians were helped on to open their account for '09.

The Pirates this week produced a sensational upset in my mind and could really move on to bigger and better things by the end of this season. The final margin was 56 points and the damage was provided by the likes of A. Bouten jaggig 6 and Whacky Wade Sanson getting plenty of prune to set the Peninsula pirates up for what could be there break through year.

SOUTH 2 - PREVIEW:

Beaumaris vs. Old Mentonians: Mentonians by plenty 100+ Prahan vs. Hampton Rovers: Hampton by a comfortable 40 points.

Bentleigh vs. Parkdale: Parkdale to open their account by 5 goals

Ajax vs. Peninsula: Match of the round, Ajax by 3 goals MHSOB vs. Monash Blues: After a good win early, confidence at Monash will be high. 4 goals.

ROUND 1 REVIEW - NORTH 1

St Bernards got off to a flyer in round one, absolutely smashing Aquinas in all facets of the game. Aquinas scored 6.6.36, half of that in the first quarter, whilst St Bernards finished off with 24.25.169, to run out 133 point winners. They kicked 16 goals to Aquinas' 3 after quarter time, and never looked back, dominating the centre clearances and possession.

Old Camberwell blew away Old Carey at their home ground, to come out victors by 86 points, 23.14.152 to 10.6.66. Old Camberwell got off to a flyer, kicking 7 first quarter goals to Old Carey's 2. Old Carey kept within 6 goals of Old Camberwell all the way 'til three-quarter time, until Old Camberwell stormed away with 9 last quarter goals. According to Coach Tim Killworth, "It was a real team performance by all 22 players, with no real stand outs."

Fitzroy began their charge to premiership glory, heading to the top of the table after round one, after beating their opponents Banyule at home. It was the complete opposite to the close match I was expecting, with Fitzroy dominating the match right from the outset.

Old Essendon also enjoyed round one success, defeating Bulleen Temp by 52 points. OEG got off to a slow start, trailing Bulleen by a goal at quarter time. But they lit up from there on, kicking 6 goals to 2 in the second, and steadily bridging the gap on the scoreboard.

Manningham Sharks had the bye, and will play their first game against OEG this Saturday.

ROUND 1 REVIEW - NORTH 2

NOBS have pulled out for the year, which gave Fitzroy a bye last week, and an extra week to prepare for their opening match against Therry Penola.

It's not often Rupertswood lose at home, but Emmaus absolutely smashed them last week, winning 27.20.182 to 2.9.21. According to the match report, Rupertswood "Worked hard early but fell away to a stronger outfit." A much stronger outfit obviously. Emmaus really looked the goods on the weekend and may prove to be the big movers in 2009.

Last year's grand finalists Ivanhoe lost their first game of the season to Old Geelong by 52 points. At half time, there was still a contest on, but OG dominated the 3rd quarter, and a 6 goal last quarter effort by Ivanhoe couldn't get them back into the match. Hopefully we don't see Ivanhoe slip this year, although OG may also be on the rise in '09.

Therry Penola took out top spot after Round 1, smashing La Trobe by 156 points. I got two tips right in this game: the match was moved to Penola's school ground in Broadmeadows also. Therry dominated from the start, and had an all round great team effort. Jarrod Egglestone kicked 9 goals up forward, and bags to W. Dean and J. Cannatelli also stood out on the day. La Trobe's big men put in a good effort, but Therry may be the team to beat this season.

Old Xavs came out on top as expected against a fresh Old Westborne side, winning by 54 points. Old Westborne are obviously still finding their feet, after trailing the whole match last Saturday. Old Xavs lead by 2 goals at quarter time, and gradually broke the margin out to 9 goals by game's end.

ROUND 2 PREVIEW - NORTH 1

Forget the ladder I produced last week for this match. Aquinas takes on Old Camberwell at home, and seemed to struggle last week in the first game of North 1. OC on the other hand were in impeccable form last week, and I've definitely underrated them and overrated Aquinas. TIP: Old Camberwell by 70 points. Old Carey take on Banyule at home, and both teams will be searching for their first win of the 2009 season. Banyule are still looking for some structure after last week's defeat to Fitzroy, whilst Old Carey put in a good effort in round 1. Again, I think I've definitely overestimated Banyule for now. TIP: Old Carey by 50 points.

Old Essendon take on Manningham Sharks, who are still yet to play after having a bye last week. OEG were fantastic last week, and I'm expecting them to outdo that performance this week. TIP: Old Essendon by 80 points.

St Bernards come up against Bulleen Tempelstowe, and I don't think Bulleen will come close this week. Expect an absolute smashing. TIP: St Bernards by 100 points.

Fitzroy will earn themselves a much deserved bye for ANZAC day, and will keep a close eye on OEG, who they come up against in round 3.

ROUND 2 PREVIEW - NORTH 1

This week's opening clash will be a tough one to pick. Ivanhoe come up against an Emmaus outfit that dominated in Round 1. Ivanhoe are still looking for their first win, and they might have to wait until Round 3, because I can't go past an in form St Leos outfit. Don't worry about Ivanhoe however, they got off to a slow start last season and they'll pick up as the year goes on. TIP: Emmaus by 40 points.

La Trobe come up against Rupertswood in what will be an enthralling match. I think it might be tough to split the two, but I'm going to go with La Trobe, who did show some good play against Therry last week. TIP: La Trobe by 20 points. Fitzroy come up against Therry, in what will be seen as a top-of-the-table vs. wooden spoon clash. This will get ugly. TIP: Therry by plenty.

Old Westborne take on Old Geelong in Round 2, and are still after their first win of the season. Old Geelong was so impressive last week, and I'm expecting them to continue their form against an improving OW outfit. TIP: Old Geelong by 70 points.

After NOBS' withdrawal from the under 19s competition, North 2 is left with a bye every week. Old Xavs will take the ANZAC day off, after their fantastic performance last weekend.

CLUB XVIII SECTION
by Norm Nugent

A great start in an expanded competition, as all twenty one matches were completed on schedule. My success rate was 71%, which was good as many teams were new to the competition.

REVIEW OF ROUND 1. SECTION 1.

Only a foolish tipster would write off Old Xaverians as I did. They "welcomed" St Bernard's to the Section by handing the "Dogs" a one hundred and sixteen point thrashing at West Essendon of all places. Collegians proved too talented for Old Scotch and won the match by forty seven points (double the Old Scotch score).

In the morning match University Blues defeated the much vaunted Old Melburnians by twenty two points. Best for the University were: Brent Townsing, Connor Thomson and James Beks. For the losers: Eddie Wettenhall, Simon Arden and Angus Tandy were best. Old Xaverians 2 proved too strong for Prahran and won by eighteen points.

An accurate De La Salle easily accounted for St Kevin's by fifty two points.

SECTION. 2.

Whitefriars started with an eighty six point win over Fitzroy out at Donvale. An impressive, Old Brighton asserted their superiority over Old Trinity as they won by sixty nine points. In the closest game of the Round, Mazenod enjoyed a three point win over Old Camberwell University Blacks started their season on a high note as they easily accounted for Monash Blues at the Monash Oval by seventy two points.

A predominantly young Marcellin side, strengthened by some seasoned players set up their fifty four point win over North Old Boys/ St Patrick's with an eight goal burst in the second quarter. The veteran Gary Petroff controlled the Marcellin forward line and brought many team mates into the play.

SECTION. 2. NORTH.

Accurate debutants, Werribee accounted for the newly formed North Old Boys/ St Patrick's by nineteen points in a closely contested match. Bulleen Templestowe erased all memories of 2008 by defeating Old Carey by twenty four points.

Newcomers, Williams-town C.Y.M.S. asserted their superiority over Kew in the second half to win by thirty seven points. The first half was an even contest although my representative thought Kew failed to capitalize on early opportunities.

The returning Old Ivanhoe, with a mix of young and experienced players, were impressive as they defeated Whitefriars by fifty two points. The young Whitefriars' players gave away an early lead and although their game improved they could make little impression on Old Ivanhoe.

Therry Penola started the season in impressive fashion with a seventy eight point win over Old Westbourne. Best for the winners were: Kelly, McCulloch and Clancy Despite a great last quarter effort by Banyule, Old Essendon won a high standard game by forty six points. Best for Old Essendon were: Matthew Flaherty, Brett Papal, Daniel Trevaskis and Tim Campbell. Banyule were well served by: David Stokes, Davin Ryan, Simon Tuckman and Brad. Willmore.

SECTION. 2. SOUTH.

St Mary's/ Salesian scored over Old Geelong by forty three points. This margin was equal to the Old Geelong score.

I tipped Old Scotch to defeat Old Melburnians. How wrong can a tipster be?? The Old Melburnians triumphed by one hundred and seventy four points in a one sided contest.

At Sports Cover Arena, Ormond easily defeated Hampton Rovers, who lacked the team cohesion which comes from practice together. The Ormond margin was one hundred and thirty seven points.

Oakleigh recorded a one hundred and nine point victory over debutants, South Melbourne Districts. St Bede's/ Mentone Tigers, although somewhat inaccurate, defeated Caulfield Grammarians by eleven points in the afternoon match at Sports Cover Arena.

PREVIEW OF ROUND 2.

De La Salle have defeated Old Xaverians once, in many seasons, as I recall. I cannot see them winning over the Xaverians in the Friday night game at Sports Cover Arena.

Although Old Xaverians 2 will face spirited opposition at St Bernard's, I select them to win. My selection is based primarily on Round 1 form. University Blues should win again at the expense of St Kevin's, who did not start their season with success. Old Melburnians have the chance to show their talent as they play Old Scotch on Oval 1. I select them as Scotch were the less impressive of the two teams last week. Can Prahran record victory on their familiar Darling Park surface? I doubt they can against Collegians, who again have shown good form.

SECTION. 2.

Old Brighton should defeat Monash Blues on the Brighton Beach Oval where many visiting sides have lost over the years gone by. Mazenod and Marcellin should play a game of high standard out on Central Reserve. The strength of Mazenod will be more apparent after this game because I saw Marcellin play very well in Round 1. Hold Petroff and defeat Marcellin may become a Sectional war cry. Today, I select Marcellin. Long standing rivals and Round 1 losers, Old Camberwell and Old Trinity meet on the Barnard Reserve. At home, I favour Old Camberwell to win. University Blacks should win well again at the expense of Fitzroy as they contest the Stendhal Cup. Whitefriars make the long journey to Brunswick to play North Old Boys/ St Patrick's, who faded out of their Round 1 game. Despite them being on unfamiliar territory, I select Whitefriars.

SECTION. 2. NORTH.

Kew travel to North Old Boys/ St Patrick's, who should be a more settled combination than in Round 1. Nevertheless, Kew are a solid side, who should prove more settled and experienced and so win the game. Old Carey should prove talented enough to defeat Whitefriars in Bulleen Park. I do expect Old Westbourne to be more competitive at home. However from all reports, Old Ivanhoe are a formidable team and so I select them to win again. Therry Penola travel to play Banyule, for what promises to be an interesting game. Therry Penola seem to have improved but in the unfamiliar terrain of the Brockwell Oval, I suspect they will find Banyule too talented. Two of the Round 1 winners will meet on the Fearon Oval when Old Essendon visit Williamstown C.Y.M.S. The visitors will find prevailing conditions strange especially if there is a strong wind. I select Williamstown, because they are at home and also as they won so well at Kew last week. Werribee should defeat Bulleen Templestowe, who face the long westward journey into unfamiliar territory.

SECTION. 2. SOUTH.

St Mary's/ Salesian should defeat South Melbourne Districts because of home ground advantage and through greater experience. Oakleigh should continue on their winning way by defeating Caulfield Grammarians. St Bede's/ Mentone Tigers should prove too settled for Hampton Rovers, who according to my news have yet to settle as a team. Two enigmatic teams, Old Scotch and Old Geelong meet on St James Park. As neither side won last week, selecting the winner is difficult. I select Old Scotch, purely because they are the home side. The match of the Round should be that at Ormond where the impressive Old Melburnians are the visitors. After a close contest, I expect Ormond to record a good win.

FOR THE LOVE OF THE GAME...

EARLY START

The 2009 season got off to an early start on Friday 17 April, with a night clash between Albert Park and Richmond Central at Sportscover Arena.

By 5:00pm, the Reserves had taken the field and we were treated to the familiar sight of patrons taking care of nutritional concerns with hot dogs and Wick burgers.

The balmy conditions were conducive to both watching and playing, particularly as there was no wind. Yes, repeat – there was no wind. The lights were in good order, but the scoreboard suddenly caught a mystery illness that has baffled the greatest of diagnostic electrical minds.

SCORE SERVICE

VFA sponsors RED-TXT are providing a free SMS score service to all players, so the mobile phones will be ringing in the clubrooms on Saturday night.

It is important for all players to have their mobile telephone numbers on the VFA database. If you didn't get a message last Saturday, it's probably because your club secretary doesn't have your mobile number on the VFA database.

LIFE MEMBER

Bruce Ivey recently was awarded Life Membership of the VFA. Bruce played 269 senior games at West Brunswick from 1968 to 1984 and won four Best and Fairest awards. He was also a premiership captain.

Bruce is a Life Member of West Brunswick, having spent 15 years on its committee as social secretary and club delegate.

He was awarded the VFA Certificate of Merit in 1989 and joined the VFA board in 1994. He has served on numerous committees, including the U19 and grounds sub-committees, as well as assisting with the C-D4 Representative teams and investigation hearings.

In his spare time, Bruce was also a teacher of Chemistry and Mathematics for 36 years at the secondary level. Congratulations Bruce.

Next week: Peter Rhoden

RAISING THE FLAG

As is the annual custom, last year's premiership clubs raised their flags before the start of the main game. While it is an occasion to be celebrated, many observers believe that such retrospectivity can be a handicap. The additional handicap is that all cup winners barring the A Section Premier are playing in a higher grade. The scoreboard from Saturday reveals the following R1 fates of last year's premiers (with Section in parentheses):

Won: SBMT (A); Werribee (D2); Williamstown (D3)

Lost: Marcellin (B); Ormond (C); Bulleen Templestowe (D1); West Brunswick (D4)

Of course, the additional handicap is that all cup winners barring the A Section Premier are playing in a higher grade.

THE LUNCH CIRCUIT

A big crowd attended the Opening Day lunch at the beautiful Brunswick Ground last Saturday and celebrated the merger of the Fitzroy FC and the Fitzroy Reds. Lions legend Kevin Murray attended the lunch and spoke passionately about what the Fitzroy means to him and his family. He touched on what it meant to be part of a football community, particularly in hard times, at which point he became a little emotional and paused to compose himself. Fitzroy were pitted against Prahran – ironically the club that Muzza's father and uncle had represented.

Former Fitzroy Cricket Club player and President and football commentator Bill Jacobs was also present. At 91 years of age, he is in fantastic shape.

Bill Atherton has been Secretary of the non playing entity of the Fitzroy FC since it came out of administration in 1998 and assures all that the spirit of the Royboys of old is alive and well in the VFA.

No better illustration of this was the seven-goal debut for the Roys of Isaac Hughson, the grandson of the legendary Fred Hughson, captain of the last Fitzroy VFL premiership team in 1944.

SEASON TICKET:

Due to popular demand, the VFA has made available a season ticket that will entitle patrons to enter all 2009 Sportscover Arena games and all finals free of charge. At $60, it's the steal of the year, considering there will be games at HQ on Friday nights, Saturdays and Sundays.

Call Jess on 9537 6777 or email jess@vafa.com.au to get your season pass.

A full list of Sportscover games can be found on www.vafa.com.au.

UMPIRES:

Due to the diligence of Umpires Director Brian Goodman and the excellent cooperation of the VFA's clubs, the league offered with close to a full quota of arbiters in Round 1.

All senior sections from A-D4 had 2 umpires, as did the U18s and U19s. All A-C reserves games had two umpires and about 75% of Club XVIII fixtures had a pair.

It's never too late to jump on board the umpiring bus.

CONGRATULATIONS:

To the Northern Bullants, the only club in the history of the VFA to remain unbeaten. (Their U18s debuted and won last week.)
