PLAY4BCNA

Thank you to everyone for getting behind Breast Cancer Network Australia and our 'PLAY4BCNA Pink Sports Day' Round over Mother's Day weekend. How amazing it is to be back to club footy!

Every year in Australia more than 20,000 Australians are diagnosed with breast cancer.

That's 55 people every day that hear those life changing words, 'you have breast cancer' and these diagnoses have a ripple effect that flows through family, friends, sporting clubs and communities.

Your participation and support this weekend shows wonderful visual support for families in your clubs and community affected by breast cancer, whilst raising vital funds to help BCNA work to inform, support, connect and represent these Australians and ensure they can access the very best treatment and care appropriate to their needs.

The COVID-19 pandemic and restrictions of the last 12 months have had a devastating effect on so many businesses and families in our communities and for many Australians that were diagnosed with breast cancer during this time, they had to face receiving their diagnosis and treatment alone.

BCNA worked incredibly hard to ensure they had access to up-to-date information and support through this challenging time and our helpline, online network, podcasts, and resources had record usage, access, and downloads which we know provided the right information at the right time, when these people needed it most.

Sporting organisations were not immune to the far-reaching damage and impacts of COVID-19, and like you, we are thrilled to see everyone getting back together and onto the ovals, courts and into the clubrooms again.

Every year in Australia more than 20,000
Australians are diagnosed with breast cancer.

Many of you have hosted a PLAY4BCNA Pink Sports Day before and know how much your community enjoys 'pinking up' and getting involved both on and off the playing arena.

I can't wait to get around to many clubs and see you all pinked up!

Thanks so much for your support and we wish your clubs much success and enjoyment this season.

And finally, to anyone who has been affected by breast cancer – know that we are here for you every step of the way.

The VAFA thanks all clubs participating in this weekend's PLAY4BCNA Round. We also wish all VAFA mothers a very special Mother's Day this Sunday.

WILLIAM BUCK MEN'S PREMIER PREVIEW

Nick Armistead

Bata up! Blues back in business as top 5 emerges

Four rounds into the William Buck Premier Men's season and a small gap is emerging between the top five and bottom five teams. While most pundits predicted a finals push from Uni Blues, Old Xaverians and St Kevin's OB, the improvement of Old Brighton and Old Melburnians has seemingly opened the race to at least five sides.

In the RSN Carnival Match of the Round, it was Uni Blues who allayed any fears of complacency when they defeated Old Xaverians by four points at Toorak Park. Xavs, who were undefeated heading into the match, were untouchable in the first term as they controlled proceedings through Dan Robinson and Grant Valles. They did, however, fail to capitalise on early chances and left the door ajar for the Blues with a 17-point QT lead. The Blues settled with three goals to one in the second term before a three-goal blitz from debutant and former Collingwood forward, Alex Fasolo, gave them a 19-point lead heading into the final term. Julian Soccio and Marcus Stavrou did their utmost to will Xavs across the line, but the experience of Cam O'Shea, Meyrick Buchanan and a dominant four-goal display from Dan Batarilo was enough to help the Blues hold on. Xavs were without Rohan Bewick for most of the match after he suffered concussion, while Blues midfielder Jay Kennedy-Harris injured his hamstring and Kieran Harper was a late withdrawal due to illness.

While Fasolo debuted for Blues, it was former number one draft pick, Jack Watts, who donned the Old Brighton jumper for the first time in their eight-point victory over Collegians. The former Brighton Grammar student kicked two goals for the Tonners as they willed themselves over the line on the back of a BOG performance from Anthony Zimmerman. Will Lewis slotted four goals and moved into third spot on the goal kicking leader board behind Bewick and Tom Boyd with 12, while Zimmerman added three. After losing ruck John Meesen, Nathan Boucher, Dan Orgill and Al Fahie from the team that defeated Scotch in Round 3, the Lions blooded three debutants, Flynn Siassios, Nicholas Canny and Tom Conron. Josh Watson was outstanding yet again as the 18-year-old backed up last week's Rising Star performance, while Ollie Jackson booted three goals.

The only reason Josh Watson is not considered Rising Star favourite after four rounds is because Old Melburnians' Ed Nichols continues to take the competition by storm after kicking four goals in the OM's 56-point win over St Bernard's. Nichols led the charge as OM's piled on eight goals to two in the opening term and made it too difficult for the young Snow Dogs. Sean Hetherington dished out his strongest performance since joining OM's, while Gus Borthwick was terrific once again. It was a tough day for the Snow Dogs prior to the first bounce with senior coach Paul Groves sitting the game out with illness and Mick Hedley taking the reins. Dominic Sullivan kicked three for the second week in a row, and Sam Woods was named their best. It was an historic day for Bernard's as four sets of brothers played in the senior side - Marcus Holland and Luke Holland, Chris and Mitch Hughes, Lachlan and Jordan Farrell, and Hudson and Jackson Barrett.

Back in the winner's column and back in style for St Kevin' OB as they defeated Old Scotch by 55 points at McQueen Park. Despite inaccuracy plaguing them in front of goal for the third week in a row (they've now kicked 32.59 for the season), SKOB were far too strong with Sam Cameron, Josh Wallis and Tom Jok leading from the front. Tom Boyd kicked three goals and joined Rohan Bewick at the top of the leader board on 13, while Scotch struggled to score with just five majors. It is the third consecutive game where the Cards have kicked less than 50 points, but they will be buoyed by the performances of Aidan Franetic and Ben Hays, and vice-captain Andy Jelbart who delivered his best game for the season.

Potentially having buried the lead, Caulfield Grammarians ended a 34-year winless run in Premier/A Grade as they defeated Old Trinity by 84 points at the Daley Oval. Having last tasted success in 1987, it was the two towers up forward who led the charge for the Fields with Brett Eddy (6) and Julian Dobosz (4) showcasing their combined prowess for the first time this season. Isaac Morrisby also kicked four goals while Nick Baltas was best afield. Following Alex Polidoros's debut for North Melbourne VFL, the T's fielded likely their youngest-ever side with Ed Weatherson, Luke Pacconi, Ben Howell, Gabe Hamilton, James Spassopoulos, Callum Pohl and Harry Thompson their only real experience. Weatherson was outstanding with four goals while Hamilton returned after suffering a leg injury in their Round 2 Friday night clash against OM's.

PREMIER B MEN'S PREVIEW

Jake Morris

Blacks, Sharks scrap out classic, De La down Roys

Escaping Uni Oval with the four points and surviving the shiver of Sharks to remain undefeated, University Blacks will now push to make it a quintet in season 2021 as they travel down the Nepean Highway to Gerry Green Reserve for a matchup with the bottom placed Parkdale Vultures. In what was touted as match of the round and a potential September preview, the Blackers and Sharks slogged out a defensive classic with Darren Mumford's safe hands breaking the deadlock in the final stages. Veteran Harrie Lahy was judged best afield while Matt Goyder and Sam McKenzie each kicked two in the low scoring tussle, and with the hopeful return of Jack Charleston to an already strong outfit, it will take a monumental effort for the young Vultures to secure their first win on the year. Youngsters Charlie Yee and Liam Purcell led the way for Parkdale in Round 3 as they continue to build towards success in coming seasons.

Pushing Uni Blacks to the brink in the confines of Uni Oval is nothing short of remarkable from Beaumaris, and even though they did not escape with the points, their start to the year proves their premierships aspirations are well within the realm of possibility. Heading into Round 4, a trip to Waverley Oval awaits the Sharkies as they face off with De La Salle for the first time since 2017. Though Scott Braithwaite and Callum Beattie-Powell who were instrumental on the day are no longer pulling up the blue and yellow socks, the likes of Chris Grigoriadis and Lewis Diggins remain and should play a big role this Saturday. De La used a second-half surge to cruise past Fitzroy in Round 3 on the backs of Thomas Deane-Johns (4 majors) and Michael Grieche (BOG), securing their second win and ending a two-game skid. Liam Wood and Sean Fisher both kicked three apiece in their last matchup in 2017, and now with Fraser Cameron and Darren Minchington in tow, another victory could be on the way for David Madigan's men.

Just two short years ago, following a 75-point drubbing at the hands of Scotch in Round 4 2019, Old Haileyburians sat in eighth position with just one win to their name. Fast-forward and with a few handy inclusions joining the fray, the Bloods have elevated themselves into a bona fide top-4 team as they put AJAX to the sword on the weekend. Recruit and former Bomber Noah Gown launched onto the scene with a six-goal performance in his first game for the club, while Brede and Durras Seccull continued to dominate play across the park. Fitzroy lie in wait for Daniel Ward's men, fresh off a tough kicking afternoon in-front of the big sticks, the Roys' rued their missed chances with just nine majors from their 24-scoring shots, proving to be difference. Donovan Toohey and Darcey Lowrie were judged the Roys' best on the day. With just one win against Parkdale so far this year, Fitzroy have yet to claim their big scalp that is common with the never-say-die attitude of the club. Could it be here?

A Premier C Grand Final recap! Williamstown CYMS and AJAX who locked horns for all glory at the end of 2019 meet once again, this time on the lake at Albert Park. Matthew Montebello and the CYs stormed home with seven last quarter goals to overturn a 25-point quarter-time deficit against Bedes to leave Brindisi St with a comprehensive 33-point win. Though Premiership hero Lachlan Fairley is missing, the combined efforts of Oskar Manton, Ryan Joy and newcomer Nick Ebinger should keep the AJAX backline working overtime, with the latter bagging four on debut for the CYs in Round 4. The Jackas were thoroughly outclassed by Haileybury at home, a disappointing result that they know they can rectify this weekend, and no better opponent than the side that caused Premiership heartbreak a mere 19 months ago. Brandon Joel was the only multiple goal scorer on a tough day, but with the always exciting Harry Sheezel up-forward and the hopeful return of Josh Ludski, a retooled Jackas filled with fire in the gut could cause issues.

Winners of back-to-back games over the CYs and Vultures respectively, Old Carey have started to click, showing some signs of life after a brutal first fortnight. Going for three on the trot, the Panthers will now welcome the struggling St Bedes/Mentone Tigers to the Carey Sports Complex, their first clash since 2013. In Round 4, Harrison Bean had himself a day out with a bag of five in a feel-good victory for the club, Ben Jepsen was judged best afield. The Tigers, who have dropped their last three by an average of 28-points, have failed to kick more than 10 goals a game in that span. A terribly disappointing Round 4 result for the Tigers saw their opponents dominate the fourth quarter and overwhelm then down the stretch, a lapse in play that can be corrected. James Mangoni booted three to take his total to 14 on the year while Jackson Cowden and Michael Barnes led the way, and will have to do it again to snap their skid.

Hampton regain Buxton Cup, Zachariah fave leads Monash

Old Geelong continued their undefeated streak beating UHS-VU by 65 points at Brens Oval. There was a clear scoring end and the Oggers took advantage kicking away in the first and third. The Vultures, while admirable in defeat, were not able to match the firepower of Old Geelong as they were crippled by inaccurate kicking all day. Captain Scott Dixon was prolific for the Oggers while Paul Dreher and young gun Connor Dixon (who has been tearing up the competition in the U23's) kicked four. Fergus O'Neill was the best for UHS-VU in his season debut. Old Geelong will face Monash in a massive battle for top of the table this week. UHS-VU will travel to Mazenod looking for that elusive first win of the season.

Old Ivanhoe made it two on the trot as they held out Marcellin by five points at Chelsworth Park. The game was tight and heated all day with no team able to separate themselves from the other. Up by three points at 3QT, the Hoers held out thanks to a terrific final quarter from Mal Mitris, who fittingly took a contested mark to win the game as the Eagles looked to have one more chance entering their 50. Daniel McMahon returned in a big way for Marcellin as he was a contested marking machine kicking four goals on the day. Jonathan Blanch was a force down back for the disappointed Eagles who once again have lost a game they feel they could have won. Old Ivanhoe would be delighted with the inclusion of Alex Mirkov, who stands at 210cm and dominated the ruck giving the likes of Jake Bradley, who was best on ground, first use of the ball all day. The forward tandem of Richard Skok (five goals on the day) and Luke Velluto (four goals on the day) and the Hoers will look to keep their momentum going when they face an Ormond side looking to get back on the winners' list. Marcellin will travel to Old Mentone in a must-win game for the Eagles.

Hampton reclaimed the Buxton Cup as they beat Ormond by 21 points at E.E. Gunn Reserve. Matthew Suckling played a vital role early as the Monders took an early lead, but inaccuracy in front of goal meant they only held a three-goal lead at QT. Led by a dominant midfield display from Nathan Smith, Hampton then stormed back in the second quarter kicking five goals to two, with Cal Cathcart kicking a miracle goal in the final minutes of the quarter to bring Ormond within five points at the main break. The third was heavily contested with Ormond leading by nine points at 3QT. However, led by Eren Soylemez (five goals) and Christian Carnovale, the Rovers took over kicking 6.4 before Ormond could render a score in the last quarter. Simon Buckley was terrific in his first game for the Monders in 2021, while Tim Allan took contested mark after contested mark to be Ormond's best for the day. Chris Perkins was awarded the Barnes Family Medal as the best on ground for his great display on the wing. Ormond's run will not get any easier as they take on a red-hot Old Ivanhoe team. Hampton will host Preston at Boss James Reserve.

Monash showed themselves to be premiership favourites as they smashed Mazenod by 94 points. After leading by only 12 points at QT, the Blues kicked 15 goals to two for the rest of the game, holding the Nodders goalless in the second half. LS Zachariah Medal favourite, MacGregor Cameron, was best on ground again as he demonstrated that any opposing ruckman is in for a long day when they face Monash. The return of the Blues' 2018 leading goal kicker Nick Woodland was welcomed as he kicked five on the day and was complemented by Mitch King who kicked three (11 on the season). Midfielder Samuel Michael continued his great form and was the Nodders' best. In the battle of the undefeated, Monash and Old Geelong, the two teams relegated from Premier B in 2019, will face off at Como Park in what will be the match of the round. Mazenod will be expecting to get back on the winners' list when they host the winless UHS-VU.

Old Mentonians had a great win when they beat Preston by 23 points at W.R. Ruthven Reserve. In a tight first half, neither team could separate themselves, but the Panthers held a slight two-point lead. In a third quarter dominated by Old Mentone, they could not make the most of their chances kicking 3.6 but were able to hold off four goals by the Bullants in the fourth to secure their second win for the season. To no surprise, Darcy Brown was in the best again kicking four goals and in a clinical display for the Panthers. The Bullants will be excited by the return of half-back Liam Carter who was their best. Old Mentone will look to make it three on the trot when they face a tough Marcellin outfit. The winless Preston has the big task of beating a sizzling Hampton team at Boss James Reserve.

Full of Pride at the Uni Oval

Nothing epitomises the power of football than the festival of inclusivity at Melbourne Uni on Sunday with the Mugar hosting Fitzroy-ACU in their annual Pride Match. The day was a raging success and consisted of a luncheon with host Chyloe Kurdas and guest speakers, Bobby Macumber (Women's Big V assistant coach & professor of laughter), Emma Kearney (NM AFLW skipper), Fi Newton & Emily Fox. There was a DJ for the occasion, official Pride merch was sold, but the most striking aspect was the Pride jumpers worn from both sides and the rainbows painted across the ground. Congratulations to both sides on an exceptional show of inclusivity for the entire community.

Brothers in Bernard's Arms

History was made at Elsternwick Park last weekend with four sets of brothers running out for St Bernard's during their senior match against Old Melburnians. Marcus Holland and Luke Holland, Chris and Mitch Hughes, Lachlan and Jordan Farrell, and Hudson and Jackson Barrett made up over one-third of the Snow Dogs outfit. Well done boys, parents would be proud.

Allen lays up to Canterbury

The Cobras are pulling in the big names left, right and centre at the moment. After inviting Tony 'Chompers' Jones down to training earlier in the season, the Cobras hosted Australian golf champion, Mark Allen, last week as he spoke about bowel cancer awareness with the men's and women's players. And no doubt in his usual honest and incredibly humorous way.

McLelland's share in historic Fields moment

Prior to last weekend's win against Old Trinity, it had been a long time between A Grade/Premier wins for Caulfield Grammarians, a very long time. In fact, the last time the Fields tasted success at the highest level of the VFA was in 1987, a lazy 34 years ago. Saturday was made even more special by the fact young Fields gun Joey McLelland helped break the drought while his father, Mark, watched on after he was a part of the 1987 victory. Great family connection.

Anytime Fitness Women's Rising Star Nominee

Eve Sheehan – Melbourne University Women's FC

Congratulations to MUWFC forward, Eve Sheehan, who has been named the Anytime Fitness Rising Star for Round 4.

Eve was a standout for the Mugar during their 39-point victory over Fitzroy-ACU in their Pride Match on Sunday, kicking three goals in a best-on-ground performance. Sheehan set up the win for the Mugar with two sensational goals in the opening term.

What the club said:

"Eve started playing footy with MUWFC in our Under 18s in the WRFL in 2018, playing in 15 games that season. In 2019, she played in 13 games and featured in the best in 11 of them. She took out League Best and Fairest in the WRFL Under 18s and MUWFC Best and Fairest for the Under 18s in 2019 to top off her incredible season.

In her three games with MUWFC Seniors this year, she has been instrumental within the midfield and forward line and has elite ball handling skills below her knees. Aside from being an incredible footballer, she has been a state representative in cricket since 2015 and played through the summer just past with the Carlton Cricket Club in the VCA Premier Women's Firsts.

Eve began playing footy after a friend got her interested and because she wanted to try out another sport. Her favourite player is Emma Kearney because "she is clean with the ball and she used to play cricket as well". Her goals in football, when asked, are "to play in a great team of MUGARS and enjoy premiership success." She is a passionate Geelong Cats supporter in both the AFLM and AFLW, is incredibly hard working and is softly spoken, despite being a fierce competitor on the field.

Head Coach, Erini Gianakopoulos had the following to say on Eve: «This is Eve's first season of senior footy after coming through our juniors. We love her in our side but hopefully she'll end up on a VFLW list next year so we'll enjoy her while we can! She's a one-touch player and full of class whether it be by hand or foot. Has a bit of Prespakis about her but hopefully she doesn't read this and get a big head.

Men's Rising Star Nomination

The VAFA congratulates University Blues midfielder, Eddy Ziebarth, who has been named the Round 4 Mecwacare Men's Rising Star nominee following his outstanding senior debut against Old Xaverians on Saturday.

What the club said:

"Eddy came to Blues this year from Albury area and he is resident at University College as he is studying Agriculture at Melbourne Uni.

He's a left footer and plays a bit like Luke Parker from the Sydney Swans. He's a tough, inside type and relishes the contest, working hard in both directions all over the ground. He is known for his strength and being a bull where it comes to his attack on the ball.

DIVISION 1 MEN'S PREVIEW

With three of the five games decided by three points or less, Division 1 Men's was the section to follow in Round 4.

Brunswick fell agonisingly short of their first win of the season as Therry Penola held on by the slimmest of margins in a one-point thriller at Gillon Oval. The Lions shot out to a 27-point lead at the first break on the back of five goals to one before the NOBS mounted their comeback and reduced the margin to five points at the final break. It was a goal-kicking expose in the fourth quarter with the Lions' four goals just enough to edge out their opponents. Jacob Gough was best afield for the Lions while Kane O'Halloran kicked four goals and took his season tally to 11 from three games. David Royle and David Marchione slotted three each for NOBS, with the latter named in the best for the third time this year.

Moving on to the two-point finish, and it was Prahran Assumption who came from the clouds as they defeated Oakleigh at Scammel Reserve. The Two Blues, sitting in third spot on the ladder, were wayward in the opening half with 2.12 and trailed the Krushers (8.3) by 27 points. It was a different Prahran side in the second half as they straightened up with 8.8 and got over the Krushers in the final term. Joel Hume was a standout for the Two Blues with a BOG display alongside Matthew Clifford and Rory Brodie. Liam Gillard was the best of the Krushers for the second time in three games and star full forward Aaron Cloke took his goal kicking tally to 18 after booting another three.

In the third and final 'close one' in Division 1 this weekend, Whitefriars held on against a fast-finishing PEGS by just three points at Whitefriars College. It was goal-for-goal in the first half and one point separated the two sides at the main break before the Friars piled on six goals to two in the third. PEGS, however, weren't done with as they stormed home with another five goals, only to fall short against the valiant Friars defence. A screamer one week and a bag of six goals the next, it was a day out for Daniel Wood as he took his tally to 14 from four games, while Benjamin Kelsey was named BOG. Mitchell Gleeson and Riley Simmons nailed four each for the Bombers as they now sit fifth on the ladder and one spot below the Friars.

Unsurprisingly, it was the two undefeated ladder leaders who didn't allow their games to be decided in the last few minutes, with Old Camberwell launching a six-goal to one first quarter assault against Old Peninsula and running out 52-point winners. While the Pirates certainly improved after the main break, the Wellers were far too strong on the back of standout performances from Lachie

Powell and Finegan Sampson. Powell, who was best-on-ground, has been named in his side's best players in every game this year. Mikey McLellan and Thomas La Brooy fought hard for the Pirates as they slump to their third loss of the season. The Wellers sit on top of the ladder with a percentage just shy of 200.

Nine individual goal kickers helped Kew FC to their fourth straight win to start the season as they defeated St Mary's Salesian by 67 points at Victoria Park. The Bears kicked 11 goals to two in a dominant opening half before the Saints evened things out with seven to six in the second. Billy Shute led a chorus of terrific performances from Kew alongside Michael Hannan, Lachlan James and Nathan Sambevski who each kicked three. Lachlan Morrey was sharp up forward with four goals for the Saints and Ananth Pathirana continued his strong form.

PREVIEW

Dare I say it, but after the tightest round in a long time, Round 5 fixtures five teams who will enter as firm-enough favourites based on ladder positions.

St Mary's Salesian will have their hands full with a PEGS side coming off a tough loss to Whitefriars. The Saints, however, couldn't have had a tougher month with losses to the four teams sitting inside the top four right now. With PEGS in fifth, it doesn't get much easier for the Ferndale Park locals, but at the very least, their opponents keep gradually getting lower on the ladder.

The sixth-placed Therry Penola will be buzzing after their one-point win against Brunswick, but things will be more difficult against the ladder-leaders Old Camberwell. Expect a Wellers victory but expect it to be tough.

Prahran Assumption was made to work in R4 but will be buoyed by their strong second half. Coming up against Old Peninsula at Toorak Park, the Two Blues should add to their three wins for the season.

Kew and Oakleigh is probably the match of the round with Aaron Cloke a chance to continue his hot form and potentially cause an upset, while Brunswick will be chasing their first win against Whitefriars in the 2019 Division 2 Grand Final re-match.

OP's big test in Match of the Round

Old Paradians v Aquinas

OP's at the Garvey again will present a major problem for the visiting Bloods. Recent form points to an OP's victory, however the last time the Bloods ventured out to the Garvey in 2019 they came away with the premiership – so the ground certainly holds no fears. While the Bloods boast the likes of Aver, Reid, Robb and Smith, the OP's with Watson, Brock, Money and Mitris in form and at home the OP's will continue on their winning way.

Manningham Cobras v Ivanhoe

The Cobras will be licking their wounds after a mauling at the hands of the top team Glen Eira last week. At home the Cobras will come outsmarting, and every contest will be hard fought, particularly with the likes of Raso, Bell and McQueen never keen to give an inch. The Hoes, with Geary, Lagreca, Roberts and Mitchell in great touch, will be well aware that another win away will entrench them firmly in the four and with too many avenues to goal will pull away after an even first half.

MHSOB v Yarra Old Grammarians

The freewheeling Unicorns at home again will prove a real handful for the Bushrangers who gave a solid account of themselves last outing. Across the field the High will hold too many aces and with multiple avenues to goal being the major challenge for the visitors. While de Ward, Trend and the Goldsmiths will make life hard for the home team, Unicorns in the form of Suhr, Growse, Wilson and Rendell will make certain they get the four points.

Powerhouse v Glen Eira

Tough ask for the House even at the Ross Gregory against the ladder leaders. There will be no love lost between these two after recent off-season transfers and a healthy rivalry to boot. The House will need to lock down hard on the Gryphons mid-field in order to reduce supply forward, and while a better side at home the House will need huge games from Miller, Dyer, Condon, Walker et al to keep the Gryphons at bay by the lake. Watch out also for the in-form Gryphons the Carey's, Richardson and Bass. Visitors will be too strong after an even first half.

Bulleen-Templestowe v West Brunswick

With the Bullants back on home turf and a solid four quarter performance last week they will tackle the visiting West Brunswick with confidence. For the Bullants to win they will require a strong four quarter performance and a man-on-man approach to combat the run and gun style of the Westies. The Moio brothers, Mamone, Verga, Harisiou and Parris will give no quarters and play a disciplined brand of attacking football, however the Westies boast an even 22 and with Fowler, Jones, Lewis and Doody in form the visitors will have too much firepower.

DIVISION 3 MEN'S PREVIEW

Sheridan Harris

Red Devils red-hot in Division 3 Men's Canterbury piled on 12 goals in the third quarter as they downed Albert Park at Canterbury Sportsground and climb into fourth spot on the ladder. The Falcons were in the hunt for the first half of the match, only down by 11 going into the main break but the Cobras turned the screws in the third. It was goals-a-plenty all day for Canterbury, with ten individual goalkickers and half of them kicking more than one. Nick Szabo (3) once again kicked majors, with Matthew Lawson (4), Luke Venditti (3), Thomas Lowden (3) and Steven Pimm (2) all riding shotgun. The Falcons' silver lining was Nicholas Materia kicking two goals, while senior coach Brett Tottenham pulled the boots on and snagged one himself. The Falcons are finding it tough going at the moment and sit on the bottom of the ladder as the only team without a win.

Parkside sits on top of the Division 3 ladder as the only undefeated side following their Round 4 victory over a valiant Richmond Central at Kevin Bartlett Reserve. It was an arm wrestle all day and a high-scoring affair, with the Snakes leading by 12 at the half time break before the Red Devils stormed home with 10 goals to six and ran out 16-point winners. Both teams boasted numerous multiple-goalkickers as Jake Munro kicked seven majors for the Snakes, with a guest-starring role from Jack Bilson (3), but it's Parkside's Simon Mackie (5) who now leads the divisional goalkicking tally. The Red Devils had nine individual goalkickers including Mackie, with Isaac Romano, Matthew Holden, and Jackson Hubbard all kicking two of their own. Liam Bourke was named best-on for the losing side, while Cody Lawson (1) got the honours and the win.

Rathmines Road Reserve was home to another Hawthorn win on Saturday as the Hawks outplayed Emmaus St Leo's. Despite kicking six straight goals going into the main break, the Animals couldn't find a way to break through as Hawthorn appeared to continuously find another gear and regain the upper hand, starting the second half 29 points up and eventually running away 34-point winners. The Hawks had ten individual goalkickers, Justin Raiti (3), Darcy Johnston (2) and Henry Kain (2) kicked multiples, and aptly named Charlie Boots was named best-on. For the Animals, Jack Hunt once again starred for the losing side, kicking five majors despite having to travel up the ground to get his hands on the ball at times, while Guy Donovan was named their best for his work around the ground.

Westbourne Grammarians lifted themselves off the bottom of the ladder after they defeated North Brunswick by 39 points at Allard Park for their first win of the season. The Warriors had their noses in front all day, limiting the Bulls to no score in the first quarter while they headed into the break 26 points up. Four goals to eight in the second half all but sealed the deal for Westbourne. Ali Eqbal (3) and his partners-in-crime Jakob Kennerley (3), Benjamin Johnson (3) and Lachlan Hind (3) led the charge, with the latter earning himself a best-on-ground vote for his efforts, as Chris Hudson (1) took the top vote for the winners. The news wasn't all bad for North Brunswick despite the 39-point loss, with Peter Butler kicking two goals and Gary Savage finding plenty of it.

Round 5 begins this weekend, and Emmaus St Leo's are donning their pink guernseys and raising money with their annual Ladies Luncheon as they welcome Richmond Central to Bennettswood Reserve. The Animals are coming off a loss but will aim to make amends in front of a large crowd, while the Snakes are looking for redemption despite a hard-fought loss in Round 4. Albert Park is playing host to North Brunswick as the Falcons search for their first win of the season while the Bulls will look to rebound after a disappointing loss.

Canterbury is hoping to deal Parkside their first loss of 2021 when they travel to Pitcher Park with the Red Devils in red-hot form after four rounds. Parkside could very nearly make it 5-0 to position themselves well this early on in the season. Hawthorn is making the trek over to the other side of the city to take on the Westbourne Grammarians, who are fresh off their first win of the season. It's this momentum that the Warriors will be looking to continue, while the Hawks' round 3 win will set them in good stead for the battle.

DIVISION 4 MEN'S PREVIEW

Zac Jennings

All stops to domination station in Div 4

Division 4's top 4 all flexed their muscle in a round where convincing victories were in vogue, as three teams remain undefeated in 2021.

La Trobe University remain unblemished to start 2021 with a win over Eley Park. Leading at every break, La Trobe outclassed the Sharks on their way to the 40-point victory. Tyler Costa, Bryce Dowler and Riley Alexander were the standouts for La Trobe, with the latter kicking five goals, while Mitch Oliver kicked three. Ben and Mackenzie Field led the way for Eley Park, with Ben booting three goals. Jarrod Leonard and Jesiah McGarvie kicked two apiece for the Sharks also.

La Trobe will face its toughest test to date as they travel to Elsternwick to face the ladder leaders, while Eley Park will look to get back onto the winners list as they host Swinburne University at Shark Park.

Elsternwick again made claims as the team to beat in Division 4, as they crushed a gutsy Masala outfit to the tune of 141 points. Two 10 goal quarters by the Wickers ensured the huge margin, as they remain on top of the Division 4 ladder with an incredible 512%. Dylan Jones was best afield for Elsternwick, kicking seven goals, while Nick Lowrie booted six, taking his season tally to 23. Matt Harvey was also amongst the Wickers best.

In a battle of two undefeated teams in Division 4, Elsternwick will play host to La Trobe University at Holmes/Todd Reserve, as Masala travel to Elgar Park to take on Box Hill North with a chance to get its first win on the board for 2021.

The big winners of Round 4 were South Melbourne Districts, kicking 23 unanswered goals after quarter time to defeat Swinburne University 26.13.169 – 3.7.25. After an evenly contested first quarter which saw the Razorbacks take a two-point lead into quarter time, the Bloods kicked into gear and showcased their class over all areas of the ground to run away with the four points and a nice boost to its percentage. Jesse Andrew kicked six goals for South Melbourne, with Sam McGinn and Jamie Brooker booting four each while Matt March was named best on ground. Lachlan Randello was best afield for Swinburne.

South Melbourne will travel to Dandenong for a huge clash against the undefeated St. Johns, as will Swinburne who are on the road to face Eley Park at Whitehorse Reserve.

11 goals from league leading goal kicker Aaron Thornton have ensured St. Johns have continued its great start on return to divisional football with another emphatic victory, this time at the expense of Box Hill North. Leading at the main break by 73 points, it was academic as the JOC's ran away with their fourth win of the season, 142-29. Thornton's impressive haul take his season tally to 26, with Corey Ely putting on another strong showing in a best on ground performance. David Edwards and Ritchard Keane led the way for Box Hill North.

St. Johns will face their toughest opponent to date when they host South Melbourne District, while Box Hill North will return home to Elgar Park to take on Masala.

MILESTONES

VFAA congratulates the following players on reaching these incredible milestones. Well done!

Josh Gasparini (Old Haileybury)

Josh Gasparini will be playing his 50th game for Old Haileybury on Saturday. Still a “young gun”, Josh made his debut for the club in 2017 and has barely missed a game in that time. He is now an integral part of the team, renowned for his hard running and attack at the football. He is also well known for kicking clutch goals in important games. Well done Josh and we look forward to many milestones to come.

50

Rhodri Jones-Pritchard (Elsternwick)

PASIA FE AT RHODDERS! (Pass it to Rhodders!) Congratulations to Rhodri Jones-Pritchard, who will be playing his 50th game for the club this weekend against La Trobe University. Coming from a Welsh rugby Union background, “Rhodders” had never played Australian football until he joined us in 2017. Rhodri proved to be a quick learner and rapidly improved his football skills, as evidenced by his two Club Most Improved Trophies. Notably, he was a member of the Elsternwick Senior Preliminary final side in 2019. Longyfarchiadau! (Congratulations!)

Sam Benetti-Baker (La Trobe University)

Congratulations to La Trobe's Sam Benetti-Baker on reaching 50 games – BB first joined the Trobers in 2017 playing mainly in the reserves. A regular on the training track who pushes himself through every session, his combination of strength, skill and steady demeanour has seen him become an established and key senior player plus a member of the leadership team. Also effective when called upon to play a shutdown role on a key opposition player, BB has served on the committee as apparel officer and is the current treasurer. Congratulations BB on your excellence as a leader both on and off the field at La Trobe!

Wes Mayne (Ivanhoe)

Ivanhoe Amateurs congratulates our resident gentle giant Wes Mayne on playing his 50th game for the Hoers in Round 4. Wezza was a late convert to footy, joining the club in 2017 at the invitation of basketball teammates and club stalwarts Lachie Roberts and Conor Mitchell. He spent his first season in the reserves honing his skills and played in a semi final at Elsternwick Park. By mid-2019 his image was on the cover of the amateur footy record and the VFAA were considering him for rep duties. A very modest bloke, he is one half of a much loved couple at Ivanhoe Park – his partner Tess Vandergriff is a foundation member of the Ivies women's team and also serves on committee. He never loses a ruck contest, never loses his cool, takes awesome grabs, and has straightened up in front of goals considerably in the past two seasons. Well done Wezza, keep it going champ!

50

Charlie Cosgriff (Monash Blues)

Congratulations to Charlie “Chugga” Cosgriff who played his 100th game at the Monash Blues in Round 1. Chugga started his football with Monash in the under 19's, quickly gaining a reputation for being a hard tackler and enjoying getting into a contest. Chugga has been played in every position in the Seniors at Monash over his versatile career with many of Charlie's best games coming in finals.

Ross Toogood (Ivanhoe)

When Ivanhoe Amateurs reserves coach Ross Toogood was told at short notice he would have to find another player to cover a late withdrawal in Round 4 (May 1), he had no hesitation in dusting off his well-worn black and white jumper. Toogood, 44, had filled in as a top-up in previous seasons when the resses were light on for numbers. And by the end of the 2019 season, his games tally was 249 – one match shy of a huge milestone. Only five other players in the club's lengthy history have played more than 250 games. Toogood, a primary school teacher, joined the Hoers in 1997 when the club was in B grade. He initially struggled to get a game in the reserves. But after the club was relegated to C and later D grades, opportunities arose and he was eventually rewarded for his efforts with a senior slot in the back pocket, wearing number 48. What Toogood lacked in pace or height, he more than compensated for with courage, determination, efficient disposal and ability to read play. With the support of his partner Amanda and their daughter Jasmine, he has remained actively involved as coach, website editor, and social media administrator. Toogood had plenty of encouragement, not least of all from his number one fan Jasmine after he came off for a breather in the second quarter. She gave him a gentle hand slap from the sidelines and stayed near him on the bench. Toogood ran out the game to celebrate a close win over Yarra Valley Old Boys under lights at Ivanhoe Park.

Cameron, SKOB seal it on the siren

Marcellin well and truly earned the four points on the weekend to maintain their undefeated status in William Buck Premier Women's, holding on for a gutsy 12-point win over Old Trinity. With no fit players left on the bench in the last quarter, Amber Micallef starred for Marcellin, not only taking best on ground honours, but also kicking the match-sealing goal. She was supported strongly by fellow midfielders Maddie Di Cosmo and Laura Robertson, whilst it was Char Grieve across half back, and Isabella Farchione on the wing who provided Marcellin with drive forward all game. Old Trinity were led well by Madeline Murphy and Sally Peers, but it was not enough to notch their first win of the season.

As both teams entered the round 2-1, the clash between Caulfield Grammarians and Kew lived up to expectations, with Caulfield holding off a second half comeback from Kew to leave Glen Huntly Oval as 2-point winners. Trailing by 13 points at the main break, Kew kicked two goals to one in the third term to cut the margin back to just 5 points at three quarter time. Despite Krystal Shaw kicking 2 of her 5 goals for Kew in the last quarter, it wasn't enough as Caulfield came up with some crucial scores when it mattered most, including a 2 goal effort from Maddie Wilson. Irena Malliaras put forward a best on ground display in the midfield, and Cheree Peters showed her class, fighting through a tag to have an impact for her team.

Old Xaverians walked away 8-point winners and fourth spot on the ladder, in a tight arm wrestle with St Mary's Salesian at Ferndale Park. Cassandra Pittard (Old Xaverians) played her best game for the season, alongside Gabby Golds and Sarah Anderson who were also amongst the best for their team. Emily Roos and Pia Hobday hit the scoreboard for St Mary's Salesians, however two goals from Brodi Harris and one from Madison Sorrenti helped Xavs register their third win for the season, as St Mary's continue the search for their first points in 2021.

A true epic took place at McAlister Oval, with a goal on the final siren from Saints star Sarah Cameron sealing a 3 point win for St Kevins over West Brunswick. The lead changed hands multiple times throughout the day, however the margin for either team never entered double digits.

As the Saints took control of the game early, a dominant midfield display from West Brunswick allowed them to take a four-point lead into the main break. A long bomb from Daila Edward (SKOB) was the only goal in a tight third term, as SKOB backs Tayla Nichols and Elle McLindin held firm. Despite a strong showing from Thomay Nicolaou and Nahkita Wolfe (West Brunswick), the game received the grandstand finished it deserved, as the last play of the day saw a long run from Elle McLindin, end in a strong mark to Cameron, who calmly iced the game right on the siren.
