The Beaumaris Football Club are seeking expressions of interest for a playing or Nonplaying coach for our Youth Reserves team who play in the VAFA 3rds competition. This is a development squad providing an opportunity for players to bridge the gap between U19 and senior football, as well as enabling players to continue to build and develop their football skills, this team allows players to continue to play and enjoy football.

Our Senior Coach Josh Bourke along with assistants Steven Milne, Scott Nish, Justin Wilson and reserve coach Nathan Prosser are a highly experienced coaching team.

We have a well-balanced playing list with experienced and talented younger players and will continue to offer teams to cater for all abilities.

We currently have 7 teams competing in the VAFA competition

- Senior Men
- Reserves Men
- Youth Reserves
- U19 senior and reserve boys
- Senior Women's
- Senior Reserve Women's

We are looking for individuals with:

- Well developed mentoring, communication, and leadership skills.
- Knowledge and experience in the game
- Good team, time, and organisational management skills

Beaumaris Football club is focused on developing coaches at all levels. As such we welcome expressions of interest. To apply, please forward your "Expression of Interest"
